Towanda, Pa., Monday, May 23, 1881

EDITORS. S. W. ALVORD. NOBLE N. ALVORD. "E. Daily Review" only 25 cents per month. Try it.

Table with columns: ARRIVE, DEPART, listing train schedules to and from various locations like Philadelphia, Troy, and Elmira.

More than fifteen acres of onions have been put in by the farmers in the vicinity of Troy. Bradford County butter is especially advertised in all the mining towns of the Valley, and in Philadelphia. A car load of fat steers were brought to this place last week, fattened on a farm adjoining President GARFIELD'S. We understand that Dr. WOODBURN is to use a bicycle in visiting patients hereafter. Several young gentlemen will also provide them selves with them. We have received from A. J. FISHER, photographer, Towanda, a picture of the steamer "Lyman Truman" as she appeared at Towanda during her stop at that point. The boat and its surroundings form a very pretty picture.—Owego Record.

Maggie's Prayer.

In memory of Maggie Martin, died Jan. 20, 1881. I am young, but I must die, I am cleansed through Christ my Saviour; Take me to thy home on high. Take me, take me, heavenly Father, To the presence of Thy Son; I would praise him, I would praise him; For my work on Earth is done. Heavenly Father, shed thy blessings On the dear ones here below; Keep them safe from every evil, That where I am they may go. You don't know what I know, mamma, What the angel said to me, Whisp'ring sweetly to your Maggie, "Soon from pain thou shalt be free!" Father, mother, live to Jesus; Love him more than earthly store; Then the pearly gates will open— We shall meet to part no more. Take me, take me, heavenly Father! One more sigh and I am gone, Take me to thy heavenly mansion, Through the merits of Thy Son. Upper Depot, Towanda, May, 1881.

Already the excitement of the great show that is to exhibit here on May 31st is manifest. Everybody is making preparations to go, and little need now be said editorially to ensure an overwhelming multitude in its colossal pavilion. This grand aggregation has the reputation of coming fully up to what they advertise, and many of the papers say they have done more than this. People are really enthusiastic over this gigantic organization and the splendid reputation they make wherever they go seems to fly ahead like the wind. The proprietors, BATCHELLER & DORIS, are determined that their exhibition here shall surpass anything of the kind ever witnessed. No lemonade, candy or other peddlers are allowed within the show, and the fact they protect their patrons from all kinds of swindlers who usually follow shows, has created a most favorable impression. In addition to the monster menagerie and grand double circus will be seen Zazel, the human cannon ball, fired from a cannon 75 feet into mid-air, and who will also ride a bicycle, walk, run and dance on a slender wire stretched across the top of the pavilion; Prince Salsuma's Royal Troupe of Japanese; band of Savage Sioux Warriors; group of genuine Zulus; a troupe of trained Arabian Stallions, and other features and novelties to be seen in no other show. The Egyptian Bovolapus, captured in the Mediterranean

Sea, will attract great notice as it is the only specimen ever exhibited. The great free street parade at 9 A. M. will prove the grandest affair of the kind ever witnessed. Don't fail to see it. BUSINESS LOCALS. SEED POTATOES.—I have several choice varieties of early seed potatoes for sale. E. W. HALE. FOR SALE CHEAP.—A "Good Morning" Range, a foot turning lathe, and a foot jig saw. N. P. HICKS. Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer: CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881. Mr. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price. I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer. My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF. MAJORS' CEMENT Mends Crockery, Glassware, &c. Colorless, Best Made, Only 15c per pot. For sale by C. P. Welles. HAMMOCKS.—A good one for 99c. Mexican Grass Hammocks, $1.75 to $2, at C. P. Welles' Crockery Store.

Post, York Avenue. FOR RENT. FOR RENT.—The office now occupied by Wm. M. Mallory as a coal office. Apply to D. W. Scott. Convenient medium sized house, well situated, for rent cheap. B. W. LANE. FOR RENT.—A desirable medium sized house on 4th street near Chestnut. Inquire at this office or of J. H. Nexins. Several good offices and rooms suitable for small families. Water and other conveniences. Over Powell & Co's store. Inquire of H. P. Moore. TRACY & MOORE. Two good houses for rent cheap. MADILL & KINNEY.

The Jones Shoe Shop in the rear of the REVIEW office is still in successful operation. Boots and Shoes made to order and repairing neatly done. All work guaranteed. Mending rubbers a speciality. CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—A notice having appeared in the last ARGUS to the effect that the plumbing at the poor house was done by a Mr. TATE, Commissioner HURST makes a correction in the following card: The plumbing at poor house was done under the direction of Edward Williams, of Towanda, and those employed by him, and is entirely satisfactory so far. J. W. HURST, Commissioner. If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.
