ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. L. H. WOODWARD, of Elmira, was in Towanda yesterday.

Mrs. Judge J. F. LONG of Burlington is visiting her sons in this place.

Miss EDITH THOMPSON is quite ill at the residence of her father, in Herrick.

Rev J. S. BEERS is visiting parishioners in the southern part of the county to-day.

F. A. THOMPSON is teaching the North Towanda school for the summer term.

CORYDON CARR, of Canton, has taken a position in the grocery store of D. W. SCOTT & Co.

The reader will find an interesting Kansas letter from the pen of Hon. C. F. NICHOLS in another column.

Mr. WAKEMAN, who has been spending several weeks very pleasantly at the Rectory, returned to his home in Connecticut, on Monday.

Rev. Doctor TAYLOR of the Universalist Church, will preach a memorial sermon appropriate to Decoration Day next Sunday evening.

Mr. BETTS, of the First National Bank, procured several copies of the revised New Testament last week, and brought them to this place.

CLARK PORTER believes in encouraging home enterprise. He has just given OTTARSON the upholster, the job of upholstering a parlor set.

EDGAR SMITH, proprietor of the Towanda and Monroeton line of hacks, has put a new hack on the road. It looks strong and comfortable. The wagon is from the celebrated shops of D. L. HUNTLEY, Monroeton.

Street Commissioner NORTHROP is doing a good work at the inter-section of Bridge and River streets. Heretofore it has been almost impossible to get down the steep bank but it has been filled in until the street is now quite passable.

Strawberries of good quality are quite plenty in market, and are sold at reasonable prices.

After next Tuesday it will be lawful to catch black bass that are over six inches in length.

The stores and other business houses of this place will be closed on Decoration Day after 3 o'clock.

Two weddings to come off a week from today, but we are not going to tell who the victims are.

SAMUEL OWEN, of Wysox, is furnishing our citizens with early vegetables. His asparagus is very fine.

The second corps of advertisers for the circus which is to exhibit here on Tuesday next were in town yesterday.

Thursday being Assencion Day Services will be held in Christ Church at 10:30 a. m. The usual evening service will be omitted.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop HOWE has partially recovered and hopes to visit Christ Church on Wednesday next, June 1. Services at 7:30 p. m.

A member of the firm who secured several of the mail routes in this section is here for the purpose of sub-letting them. He resides in Kentucky.

A special meeting of Mantua Hook and Ladder Company, No. 4, will be held this Wednesday evening. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

Notwithstanding the popular tradition that oysters are not good to eat in the months which do not contain the letter "r," SEELEY is serving bivalves of excellent flavor yet.

The Graded School will close for the current year on Friday. Closing exercises to begin at 2 o'clock. The principal and his assistants will be pleased to see the parents of their pupils on the occasion.

The Mutual Musical Alliance will hold a four days' session at South Auburn, commencing Tuesday June 7 and closing the following Friday with a concert. Prof. H. E. COGGSWELL, of Scranton, has been selected as director.

The County Commissioners have not exercised their usual good judgment in the matter of the walk they are putting down in front of the park on Main street. It would have been much more economical to have used stone instead of plank, especially now when good flagstone can be procured so cheaply.

Decoration Day.

HEADQUARTERS WATKINS }
POST NO. 68, G. A. R., }
TOWANDA, May 4, '81.

Special Order No. 1.
In compliance with the rules and regulations and orders from Department headquarters, Watkins Post No. 68 will observe Memorial Day, May 30, by the customary ceremonies of the G. A. R.

A monument of evergreens will be erected, decorated with flowers, and dedicated to the memory of our fallen soldiers whose graves are unknown.

The soldiers graves in our cemeteries will be decorated and strewn with flowers.

The flowers and evergreens placed upon the graves and the monument are to remain there to fade and wither, and not be carried away by any one at the close of the ceremonies.

Other decorations placed upon the graves and monument by the comrades of the G. A. R. are to remain there until removed by them, and every soldier should guard them with sacred vigilance and allow not a flower to be removed.

The organizations that are to take part in the ceremonies or parade, are requested to assemble in front of the Court House at 3 o'clock, p. m. and immediately be assigned a place in the procession.

A programme of the order of the exercises and place of each organization in line will be distributed on Memorial Day.

By order of
J. R. KITTRIDGE. GEO. V. MYER.

The News Condensed.

It is reported that Senator Cameron has gone to Albany.

The report that Senator Piatt, of Connecticut, is in ill health, is incorrect.

Vice-President Arthur and ex-Senators Conkling and Platt arrived at Albany, yesterday afternoon, and were enthusiastically received.

It is reported that Conkling has been employed by parties interested in dissolving the Manhattan Elevated Railway Co. his fee being $100,000.

The steamer Victoria, running between Springbank and London, Ont., colapsed last evening. The boat was returning from Spring bank to London with over six hundred excursionists on board, all of whom were precipitated into the water, many of them beneath the debris. It is believed that at least one hundred and seventy five lives were lost. One hundred and fifty dead bodies had been recovered up to last accounts. The excitement on the shore is intense.

A sensational story is being circulated in Paris, from St. Petersburg, that on the 16th inst., four days after the birth of her child, Hussy Helfman was hanged in prison. It is said that she was tortured daily in the most fiendish manner, to ring confessions from her. Night after night she was awakened and warned that her hour was near. For several days in succession she was strung up, and cut down just in time to prevent her death. On the morning of the 16th, the hanging process lasted too long, and when Hussy was cut down it was discovered that she had strangled to death. The indignation and excitement at St. Petersburg is immense. Troops are forbidden to leave their barracks. A revolutionary movement is anticipated.
