VOLUME II, NO. 245.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Col. OVERTON and L. M. HALL, Esq., are down in Wyoming county troutng.

GEORGE B. MARKLE, jr. has been elected captain of a military company in Hazleton.

Editor VANCAMP of the Wayne county, N. Y., Democrat, was in town yesterday as the guest of Mr. HAMMAKER of the Republican.

Mrs. L. S. BLAISDELL, who has been an invalid for the past six weeks—some of the time alarmingly ill, is recovering, and her physician thinks will soon be convalescent.

EDWARD HOOPES and ISRAEL W. MORRIS, two prominent Philadelphia capitalists, and large stockholders in the Barclay Coal Co., are stopping at the Ward House.

C. M. SANDERSON, who with others, spent quite a fortune in developing the Loyal Sock coal mines several years ago, is registered at the Ward House. He is now operating a colliery at Pittston, and we hope is recovering some of the money he lost in the coal business here.

JAS. R. CLAGHORN and JOHN W. LOCKWOOD, of Philadelphia, father and father-in-law of President CLAGHORN of the S. L. & S. R. R. Co., arrived in town last evening and will remain a few days as the guests of the last named gentleman. They will join the excursion to Bernice to-day.

Ascension Day. Service at Christ Church at 10:30 this morning. No service this evening.

JAKE AALYN, the undertaker, informs us that he has sent five coffins out of his establishment this week.

The closing exercises of the Towanda Graded School come off to-morrow afternoon commencing at 2 o'clock.

See the card of Mr. BEAN, painter, in another column. He has done some very fine work in this place and is highly spoken of by his customers.

JAMES REILY and JOHN MEANY, two young men of Troy, went into a sand bank Monday evening to get a load of sand, when a portion of the earth caved in, seriously if not fatally injuring REILY.

Rev. D. R. FORD, D. D., of Emma Female College, gives the annual address before the societies of the Collegiate Institute the present year. Subject, "Books and Travel." Rev. C. H. WRIGHT will deliver the anniversary sermon.

Quite a party of gentlemen are to join President CLAGHORN and General Superintendent BLIGHT in a trip to the coal mines at Bernice to-day. The company are to leave by special train about 9 o'clock this morning, returning in the evening.

Mrs. WALLACE POOL, a married woman living near the nail mill, dropped dead yesterday. She was apparently well and had been washing in the morning. About noon she went into the house and took up her six months old child, when she fell down dead.

At a meeting of soldiers boys held at Military Hall last evening, a Company was organized to take part in the decoration ceremonies, and the following elected officers:
Captain—HARRY W. MYER.
Lieuts—1st., WALLIE HARRIS; 2d., FRANK OVERTON.

A friend to whom we are indebted for many favors gives a short review of Rev. OSTRANDER'S lecture, in another column. While dissenting in toto from his estimate of the effort we print the article in deference to the writer. If the small amount of theology the lecture contained is orthodox, the Bible needs revising again—there are not letters enough in the name of Deity. For our part we do not want to hear him again.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Slightly warmer; partly cloudy; light rain.

Reunion at Troy.

A good house greeted the Graduates Reunion, Tuesday evening. Fists on the programme was music.

Mr. Geo. D. Leonard delivered an oration entitled "Benefits of our Union." It was a very polished effort and showed deep thought.

Miss Louise Wilson read an essay entitled "A special Arm in Life Essential to success." It was well written and finely delivered.

A duet by Misses Greenough and Lewis came next.

Miss Sarah Hooley gave a humorous reading from Mark Twain. The selection was happily chosen and the style of delivery easy.

Mr. Albert Morgan delivered an oration on the "Money value of Education." The production was a good one, exhibiting care in the preparation and was delivered in the speaker's usually graceful manner.

Misses Greenough and Lewis gave an instrumental duet. Miss Jennie Greenough read an essay, the title of which we did not learn. It was an able effort, teeming with brilliant thoughts and written in her usually fascinating style.

Mr. R. R. Wilson read a prophecy entitled "A Visit to Troy in 1900," describing a visit to Troy twenty years hence, the future appearance of the town, and telling how many graduates had succeeded in life.

After singing by Messrs Leonard and Cosper and Misses Greenough and Lewis, with Miss Mattie Herrick at the piano, Prof. McCollom, in behalf of the absent president, thanked the company for their attention and announced that the graduates would repair to the room below. Here some forty sat down to a well spread table, and while dispensing of the bounties before them, chatted pleasantly together. After an hour spent in this manner the company departed and a very pleasant reunion ended.

Among those present at the supper we noticed several members of the school board, Prof. McCollom and wife, Mrs. John Willett, Mr. E. B. Brace and Miss Catharine Coney.

The Graduates' Association are greatly indebted to Misses Minnie Grohs, Grace Sayles and Lillie Jarolman, for the pleasant time experienced at the banquet. TROJANUS.

You can always get good ice cream at C. S. FITCH'S. Don't you forget it.

The ladies of Towanda and vicinity, who are interested in the decorating of the soldier's graves next Monday, are requested to send what flowers they can spare to the Linta engine room, Monday morning, May 30. BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

An agent for "My Wayward Partner" will canvass this place this week for the work. All who have read "Josiah Allen's Wife," will be glad of an opportunity to secure this book.

Two or three first-class painters wanted. Steady work and good wages. A. H. BEAN.

WANTED.—A good strong lad to help in the bake shop through the summer. D. W. SCOTT & Co.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A large office table, in good condition. GEO. W. KIMBERLY.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

Fitch, the confectioner has just received a large invoice of flags and is prepared to fill orders for Decoration Day.

Fitch's ice cream parlors are now open for the season. His cream needs no recommendation. It is unequalled in quality.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

When you're down town drop in and try a dish of the celebrated ice cream at Titus' confectionery store. It can't be beat. They also have elegant Florida oranges, lemons, pine apples and bananas constantly on hand. Give them a call.

Owing to the increased demand for ice, and the inability of the regular team that runs on week days to run on Sunday, I have made arrangements with McIntyre's dray to deliver ice to our regular customers on Sunday mornings, commencing and continuing during the heated season.

JOHN ADAMS.

The News Condensed.
