We have interviewed a pupil of Ike Walton from whom we gather the following piscatorial information, a synopsis of which we arrange for our readers. He says the fishing in the Susquehanna so far this season has been unusually good, larger hauls having been made than in some years past. Spearing was successfully indulged in till the recent rise which put a veto to this unique mode of fishing, the water being too muddy to see the finny chaps. Spearing is done at night, the boat carrying a jack or fire box in which a bright light is kept up by means of fat pine or kerosine which enables the fisherman to see the river bottom and pick up on a spear the game that may come within the reach of the savage instrument.

Our informant confesses that this may be regarded as a piratical way of fishing, not "tony" as the hook and line method but nevertheless it has the most fun and excitement and usually brings a good haul.

He says the streams having swollen a little, now is a boss time for the out-line and no doubt a lively run of eels will follow. Dark nights are preferred; a boat is required to run over the line, bait the hook and take off the fish. Not much skill is required to fish this way and boss and professional fishermen who delight in the use of the fancy section rod and duplex reel will not resort to it.

He reports a big increase of bull-heads and pickerel,—saying he never knew them so large nor plenty before. Black bass, the tony and gamy fish, of the river promises to be abundant and of a larger size than heretofore. The story of the ice and cold winter having killed them is all bosh. He thinks the Susquehanna would be to-day one of the best streams east of the Mississippi for fish if the Columbia and other dams were removed or arranged to let shad come up. But as it is he thinks we need not complain, especially those living along or near the river. In conclusion he says the worst feature of the matter is the excitement and fascination that attaches itself to the business which in too many cases blunts a man's enterprise, paralyzes his regard for the truth as regards what he catches and in fine unstrings and unfits him for any other work during the season. The moment he grinds up his fish pole and sets out you can cancel him in a social and business point of view till the season ends, as he is quite oblivious to his surroundings and puts other engagements to a discount. A nibble at his pole as he dozes away, hudy and wet, magnetizes him; to catch a chub stirs his whole energy, and a bass so intoxicates him that you may as well bid him good bye to every surrounding but fish. In ordinary matters his word may be good, but for his fish stories, make a tremendous allowance.

Hubbell's letter to Garfield, requesting the latter to write to Brady, is as follows:

I am a great deal annoyed in interesting friends to aid in carrying on my work in this campaign. Many are apathetic, and while they are profuse in good wishes and ready to encourage by words, yet that does not pay printing bills and other expenses. General Brady of the post office department seems to think that you do not care for his aid, and is for some unknown reason inclined to be cool toward you. I am satisfied that on an intimation from you that such things would be appreciated he would perhaps do something for me. Indeed he has intimated as much to me. Won't you please set him right or in some way express a desire for his aid, for I need help very much just now?

If any body thinks he can make out anything against the President from this little correspondence he must be a fool

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF.

Owing to the increased demand for ice, and the inability of the regular team that runs on week days to run on Sunday, I have made arrangements with McIntyre's dray to deliver ice to our regular customers on Sunday mornings, commencing and continuing during the heated season.

DR. A. E. BURR'S

HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
