DOGS.—Father KELLY, pastor of the church of SS. Peter and Paul, received direct from the kennels of the breeder the other day a pair of very handsome dogs. They are, he informs us, the result of a succession of crosses from choicest original rough-coated St. Bernard, Newfoundland and Pyrene wolf dogs since 1846. By Counselor ESSEG, of Wurtemberg, Germany. The species are celebrated for immense size, docility, sagacity, and fondness for children. They are shaggy, fawn-gray color, and have small ears and bushy tails; attain their full size at three years of age, when they average from 36 to 40 inches in height, and from 100 to 200 pounds in weight. Father KELLY's are one year old—the male measures 30 inches in height at the shoulders, and the female 27 inches. The Princess of Prussia paid £200 for one of them, and the Prince of Wales is also in possession of one. They are the only canines of their specie in the United States. There are a few of them in Newfoundland, where they are in great demand. Father KELLY obtained his through a friend in the old country. The transportation charges from England to this place were nearly one hundred dollars. As soon as they are taught English we presume they will be exhibited on the street.

Ex-Sheriff J. M. SMITH, one of the model farmers of the county and noted as a stock raiser as well as an astute and active politician, had a narrow escape from severe injury and possible loss of his life. A few nights ago he was returning from Troy to his home about two miles distant, and walked on the railroad track until near home. Here by chance he fell into a cattle guard, but with no serious consequences except a pretty good shaking up. Proceeding a way farther he came upon a place where workmen on the railroad that day had dug out a trench for iron pipe to replace a filled up culvert. Here he fell, his left foot catching in such a manner that he could not free it. He struggled some minutes before he could release himself, trying to pull his foot from his boot but with no avail. At last he got his foot loose and at the cost of some bruises and lameness reached home only a few rods away. He had hardly reached the house however before the evening express went by with a rush. His good fortune in releasing himself just when he did probably saved his life.—Troy Gazette.

The well-known Batcheller and Doris' Great Inter-Ocean Circus and Menagerie will appear here to-day.

The enterprise was started about three years ago and is comparatively a new candidate for public patronage. The proprietors, Messrs. Batcheller and Doris, have been connected with the management of leading tented exhibitions for several years and are claimed to have given the greatest satisfaction to the public. They advertise to have with their present combination exclusive novel attractions not to be seen in other shows. One of their novelties is Zazel, the so called human cannon ball, who advertises to be fired from a one hundred pound sea-coast mortar seventy-five feet in to mid-air. Zazel has been a prominent sensation in London and Paris for the past two years. In addition to these novelties, they claim to have the only group of Native Zulus ever in this country, a genuine band of savage Sioux Warriors, direct from Sitting Bull's band, Prince Satsuma's Royal Japanese Troupe of athletes, jugglers and necromancers, Morris' Band of Georgia Jubilee Singers, Mdlle. Sara, the renowned French bareback equestrian (first appearance in America), Romeo Sebastian, champion bareback rider of America, W. J. Morgan, the fearless hurdle rider, the celebrated Siegrist children in gymnastic exercises, and a Double Circus Company, excelling in their various specialties.

Col. HALL, the popular U. S. Marshal, and genial gentleman, has many friends in this county who will read the subjoined item with pleasure. We expect at no distant day to see him Governor of this state. The paragraph is clipped from the Evening Mail, Allegheny City:

Perhaps the finest herd of thoroughbred Short Horns in this section is owned by U. S. Marshal Hall. His stock is all first-class and very valuable. He, in company with a number of others from Washington county, attended the great sale of Short Horns that took place at Port Huron, Michigan, recently. The noted herds of Avery & Murphy, of Detroit, John P. Sanborn, Port Huron and Thos. Brinkett, were disposed of readily. The following will serve as a sample of prices: An Ardrle, Duchess 10th, 1 year and 3 months, $7,500; Ardrle, Duchess 11th, 6 weeks, $5,000; Ardrle, Duchess 5th mother of these calves, $7,000.

Mr. Hall bought a Rose of Sharon aull, by Twenty-Third Duke of Ardrle, one year and three months old, that is said to be a perfect beauty. Mr. Hall does not care to say what price he paid for it lest people might say he was bragging. Those who know say it is among the finest animals offered at the sale, and those who saw it agree that its equal has never been seen in these parts.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.
If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.
