Why don't somebody get up a strawberry festival?

What has become of the borough ordinance requiring dogs to be muzzled during hot weather?

Two of the BACHELLER & DORIS bands furnished music for decoration services in Tunkhannock on Monday.

Lots of good people in the country recollect yesterday morning that they had business in town which must be attended to that day and never thought about its being circus day until they got here.

People casting about for some place to spend a vacation this summer, will find Sheldrake, on Cayuga Lake, one of the most attractive resorts in the country. The place is easy of access to people in this section. The Cayuga Lake Hotel, one of the finest hotels to be found anywhere, will be open to the public on the 15th instant.

C. T. SMITH of the Delevan House in this city offers for sale the lease and furniture of that hotel. The house, being near the depot convenient in all respects, well arranged and in good order, would be an attractive place for some hotel man looking for a spot to locate. Mr. SMITH is one of the best landlords in the country and has given the house such a reputation for good meals, pleasant rooms and considerate and courteous attention that the purchaser would step at once into a first-class trade.—Elmira Free Press.

ATHENS, MAY 31, 1881.

The services yesterday at this place were interesting. The Franklin Guards went over in the morning and decorated the grave of Col. Franklin, Major Spalding making a short but excellent address. Perkins Post Band accompanied them and in the afternoon led them and the G. A. R. boys to the Tioga Cemetery. They were joined on their return by Protection Hose Company and others, and marched to the village cemetery; at this point rain began falling, and by the kindness of Rev. Mr. Head the Methodist Church was opened, and soon filled with a civil company who listened attentively to an excellent address by John M. Vanderslice. The Glee Club rendered excellent vocal music, Miss Helen Lane of Waverly assisting, Miss Campbell of the same place, presiding at the organ. The address was worthy of special mention for taste and thought. WILL.

SAVE THE CHILDREN'S LOCKS.—Do not deprive the little ones of so great an ornament as the curls which it is so little trouble to form in childhood. Let them have at least those to distinguish them from the men and women to whose estate they will arrive all too soon. There is a common but false notion that frequent cutting of the hair is favorable to its health and growth. Mothers thus often despoil their infants of their first silken locks with the idea that the second hair will be much more rich and abundant. This is an error. "The most beautiful heads of hair I ever saw," says Dr. CAZENAVE, "were those which the scissors had never touched." Mothers, not satisfied with trimming the hair of their children, often have it shaved or cut close to the scalp, when they find it losing some of its brilliancy or falling off. Except in rare cases of disease the total sacrifice of the hair is unnecessary, and the second growth is never equal to the first.—Getting the hair trimmed from time to time, may be allowed, as a matter of convenience, but it does not produce the benefit generally attributed to it.—Household Journal.

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

MR. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c.
