Mrs. Perrigo, music teacher, has removed to J. P. VanFleet's where she will hereafter meet her pupils.

Wanted immediately—two or three good rooms in a pleasant dwelling house. Address P. O. box 39.

The Globe store, Jos. Marks proprietor, was closed by the sheriff yesterday on an execution in favor of a New York creditor.—His liabilities are said to be about $1600.

The range at the poor house, which was purchased in New York, does not perform according to guaranty and the manufacturer was over examining it yesterday with a view to remedying the difficulty.

EDS. REVIEW—Your little daily is a ray of light from the scene of my happiest days. My childhood and youthful efforts were on the banks of the beloved Susquehanna, which since I have left this beautiful stream, is doubly dear to me. I long to bask in the sunshine and shadows of my native State day by day; my passion for angling and hunting add to my desire to go home from time to time. There are yet still dearer ties that draw me to the old play grounds; my mother's grave, where flowers blossom and shed sweet perfumes, emblematic of her many virtues and sweet disposition, the faces of my relatives and dear friends, familiar rocks, streams, mountains, and the dear, dear old homestead. It seems to me now that I can almost count every stone for miles around the hills and valleys of Wyalusing, and know the limbs of the trees by heart.

Twenty years have gone, and the changes death and decay have wrought are many. To enumerate them would open wounded hearts and cause them to bleed afresh. Let us then only behold the bright side of the picture, changes by time put forth. The thought that the seed must needs die that life may come out of the germ, points with power to our only hope, that Heaven awaits the reunion of us all in the sweet bye and bye.

I expect with several other Syracuseans to spend a week or so in Wyalusing in June. We intend to put up with J. M. Brown and put in full time fishing for black bass.

This city was alive with people yesterday. The decoration ceremonies were impressive and grand; more than 10,000 people congregated at Oak Wood Cemetery. Bishop Sims, Chancellor of Syracuse University, delivered the address.

Business is booming here; building and improvements going on with a rush; lots of money and lots of push in our moneyed men.

Syracuse is destined to become a large and prosperous city in the near future. The salt interest might be better, perhaps it will after a while. Manufacture of steel springs, &c., by W. A. Sweet & Co., and chilled plows by Bradley & Co. show much enterprise. The electric light has been introduced and the works are now run day and light.

Our parks and drives are lovely; the country all around us never looked more lovely.

An excursion from Bradford county to this city would afford the greatest pleasure to all, especially the young people. The most of us are administration men.

Samuel Adams is doing a good business here handling the Loyal Sock coal. Sam is a gentleman.

My youngest son, Ward, broke his right arm yesterday forenoon. The fracture was midway between elbow and wrist, both bones; he is doing well. We hope to see all our old friends up this way. M. M. B.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 31, 1881.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.
If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

MR. GEO. H. WOOD:

My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c.
