E. T. BURGAN, Pres.

Mrs. AURORA BARNES, a highly esteemed lady, wife of the late REUBEN BARNES, living near Sugar Run, died suddenly Saturday afternoon last. Mrs. B. was about 60 years of age and in the enjoyment of fair health at the time of her sudden death, which occurred as she was preparing to go to the village with her son, he having got ready, called for her at her room and found life nearly extinct. Her mother, Mrs. Spring, aged nearly 93 died suddenly at the house of Mrs. BARNES, sitting in her chair, some two weeks ago. The mother and daughter having died in so sudden a manner, from natural causes—heart disease probably—in same house, within about two weeks, is rather a remarkable coincidence. They were both highly and respectably connected, being the pioneer settlers of that section of the county.

PROF. FORD'S LECTURE.—The almost incessant rain-fall yesterday, continuing in the evening, kept many away from Mercur Hall, but the very fair audience who did not allow the inclemency of the weather to keep them away, enjoyed a rich treat. No description of Professor FORD's admirable lecture, before the literary and scientific societies of the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute, would do it justice. To be appreciated it must be heard. We only voice the sentiment of all present when we pronounce it one of the most entertaining and instructive lectures ever delivered here. The Doctor is thoroughly familiar with his subject, "Books and Travel," and entirely free from pedantry and mannerism, too often displayed by those of fewer acquirements. He is certainly a success as a lecturer, and if we may judge from his theory, is a model educator. The Elmira College is peculiarly fortunate in having such a man for its principal.

After the lecture strawberries and ice cream were served in the hall, for the benefit of the College societies, and a goodly number remained to partake of the refreshments.

At a regular meeting of Watkins Post, No. 68, G. A. R., held on Saturday evening last, June 4th the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Post feeling deeply sensible of the kindness of the citizens of Towanda and vicinity in contributing so generously toward the success of our Decoration Ceremonies, desire publicly to express our sincere thanks to all, and especially to those citizens who contributed so freely toward the payment of the expenses of the occasion; to the papers for their many kindnesses, and frequent notices, to those who contributed flowers, and time in preparing them for use; to the ladies, who are always so ready to assist us, to Rev. C. T. Hallowell for his excellent address; to Mr. LeGrand Brewer for his excellent rendition of a poem; to Mr. Elsbree for the free use of Mercur Hall; to the different organizations for joining in the parade, and to the citizens generally in taking so great an interest in aiding us in keeping ever green the memories of our dead comrades.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the different papers.
