Judge BENTLY and JOHN RANSOM, of Williamsport, are in town.

Mrs. T. M. SANTEE, of Hazleton, is visiting her mother at the Ward House.

REED BRAUND, of RUNDALL'S market, is on the sick list, and has been confined to the house for several days.

S. SMITH, wife and son, of Hazleton, are at the Ward House. They are on their way home from Niagara Falls.

The Supreme Court has refused a motion for the re-argument in the case of EDWARD OVERTON'S ex'r vs. CONMEY, decided in favor of the defendant at the late session in Philadelphia.

Rev. W. S. STEEN was ordained to the Gospel Ministry by the Presbytery of Lackawanna in Wysox on Tuesday evening. Dr. CHARLES REED was at the same time ordained a ruling elder.

A trout caught by EZRA DECKER, in Sullivan county was exhibited at Dr. H. C. PORTER'S drug store, yesterday. It was a beauty, and weighed twenty ounces. Its length was almost 15 inches.

JOHN BEAMAN'S little dog was run over by the cars at Sayre the other day and the head entirely severed from the body. JOHN was greatly attached to the animal, because it was a pet of his wife's.

PHILIP O NEILL, of WilkesBarre, made us a pleasant call yesterday. He was on his way to Overton to spend a month or two with his father. Mr. O.N. is a member of the Luzerne county bar, and a writer of some note.

IRVING S. BOAS, for many years clerk at the Lochiel Hotel, Harrisburg, will have charge of the office of the hotel Albion, Atlantic City, this season. He is one of the best known and most accomplished hotel men in the country, and his hosts of friends all over this State, should they visit Atlantic City, will esteem it fortunate to find themselves in his charge.

Mrs. Doctor MONTANYE and Miss IRENE MASON will leave for the West to-morrow morning. The former goes to Waupacka, Wis., to visit her cousin Mrs. Doctor EYRE (nee Miss BELLE LAMON) and expects to remain several weeks. Miss MASON'S destination is Wyoming Territory where she goes to visit the family of her brother, Col. J. W. MASON, of the U. S. Army.

CELESTIA LAMON who some years ago lived with her uncle, W. A. CHAMBERLIN Esq., is still very pleasantly remembered by her many friends here. A year or so since she was married to Dr. GASTON, a prominent young physician in Tennessee. Last fall her husband was elected to the State Senate on the Republican ticket, and now he has been appointed Surveyor of Customs at the port of Chattanooga. Miss LAMON deserved a good husband, and from Dr. GASTON'S high standing and prominence in Tennessee we have no doubt that she has been fortunate in her marriage. We know that he has secured an excellent wife.

If the weather will permit, the Germanias will give another Open Air Concert to-morrow evening.

MILLER, the hackman, makes a specialty of the early morning trains, 8 and 3. If you are obliged to meet these or any other trains, leave your order at MILLER'S office, below the Council room, and you will be sure to reach the depot on time.

The "Shale Sisters," three blind ladies, in charge of Miss HAMLIN, gave one of their pathetic, artistic and grand entertainments in the M. E. Church last evening, to a large and delighted audience. Little MYRTLE added very largely to the interest of the entertainment by her recitations.

POWELL & Co., who know how to advertise as well as how to buy and sell goods, make several important announcements in the REVIEW this morning. The reputation of this house is such that the public know they mean every word they say, and when they advertise great bargains in any line of goods, they are prepared to offer them.
