If it were not for faith in the promises of One who controls the elements, and who has said that "the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh," we should begin to suspect that a second Noah with his ark would be required. It has rained almost incessantly for the past ten days.

CHARLES H. AMSBRY, formerly a well known resident of this city, has recently become associated with Mr. HOLLENBACK, a leading capitalist of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and under the firm name of HOLLENBACK & AMSBRY, have purchased the old established woolen mill at Camptown, Bradford county, which has for several years been idle or worked only to a limited extent. They have completely overhauled the mill, fitted it with improved modern machinery and made preparations for the prosecution of an extensive business.

The business affairs of the concern are under the able management of Mr. AMSBRY—who is a man of large experience and executive ability and a thorough gentleman. The capacity of the factory which is now five hundred yards per day, will be greatly increased and facilities afforded for the manufacture of a superior quality of goods. In his new business relations Mr. AMSBRY is receiving deserved complimentary notices from the press of the vicinity.—Binghamton Rep.

We find the following notice of a slight accident to President PACKER's yacht, Emilie, in the Milwaukie Sentinel of Tuesday last:—

"The handsome steam yacht Emilie arrived in port yesterday forenoon in a leaking condition. She went directly to WOLF & DAVIDSON'S yards, where she was placed in the boxes for repairs. The Emilie is bound from Oswego for Chicago and is accompanied by her owner, R. A. PACKER, President of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, and a number of other railroad officials. While passing Cheney Point, twelve miles north of Sheboygan, Sunday forenoon, she ran aground and broke her condensing pipe, causing her to leak. The Captain headed the boat to Sheboygan, which place he reached in a few hours. During this time the yacht was kept free by her sypheu. At Sheboygan the life-saving crew volunteered to accompany the yacht to this port, and placed on board their Ramsey pump, furnished them recently, and by working this constantly all Sunday night and part of yesterday forenoon easily kept the yacht free. The life-saving crew left with their apparatus for Sheboygan last night.—The Emilie is one of the handsomest and fastest yachts on the lakes. She is furnished with a double cylinder low pressure engine, and can make fifteen points per hour. Mr. PACKER has concluded to furnish his handsome little craft with a Sheriff's wheel. She will go to Chicago as soon as repaired, and in the meanwhile her passengers will employ their time in viewing Milwaukie."

CAMPDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF.
