The Commissioners have provided the poor house with rocking chairs. Right.

CHARLIE HOUSTON is a better weather prophet than VENNOR. He said we would have fair weather after the moon changed, and we have it.

When the excellence of rice as a diet is fully understood, its use will be more frequent and of daily occurrence in every household. At this season of the year especially, it may properly be classed as superior to any of the cereals which are in such general use for the morning and midday meals. No other food is so easy of digestion, and at its present cost it is cheaper than potatoes, oat meal or grain grits of any kind.

A GOOD AMUSEMENT CENTRE.—Never let us hear again that Alton is a "poor show town." Mercantile Hall and City Hall both filled to their full capacity last night give emphatic denial to that oft-told tale, and proved what the Democrat has often and always maintained, that a really good company will always be well patronized here while an inferior one will often suffer. Both halls were crowded. At the City Hall the New Orleans Minstrels drew a very large audience. The splendid band accompanying them charmed all hearers during the day and evening and the performance itself realized the high expectations it aroused. The New Orleans Minstrels are first-class. Their music, especially the cornet playing, is superb. Their solos and quartettes were splendid and their double clogs irresistible. All in all they furnish an entertainment worth more than the price charged for admission.—Alton, (Ill.) Democrat.

This company will appear in Mercur Hall Friday evening.

The Commencement Exercises.

The commencement exercises of the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute were held in Mercur Hall, Thursday evening. Though the weather was inclement enough to justify people in staying at home, nevertheless a goodly number assembled to hear the music, the essay and the orations. The following is the programme:

- Oration, "Xenophon and the Ten Thousand."—Mark E. Bowman.
- Instrumental solo, L'Orgie Bauanaie, Miss Fredereca Fox.
- Oration, the Catilinarian conspiracy. Kent M. Bull.
- Quartette, Where has the Summer Fleed? Misses Stewart, Passage and Woodruff and Messrs. Mace and Turner.
- Essay, Blues. May Coddling.
- Instrumental duet, Swedish Wedding March.—Misses Stewart, Calkins, Fox and Black.
- Oration, Value of Scientific Study. H. P. Corser.
- Solo and Chorus, My bright Heather Flower.
- Oration, The American Navy. W. V. Duggan.
- Instrumental solo, Home, Sweet Home. Miss Anna F. Thomas.
- Oration, The Gracchi. William E. Lane.
- Instrumental duet, Ungarische Rhapsodie, Misses Thomas and Stewart, on two pianos.
- Oration, Mathematical studies. L. D. Whitney.
- Quartette, Where are you going to my pretty Maid.
- Oration and Valedictory, Maltum ex Parvo. A. F. Bronson.

Mr. Bowman gave a brief account of the famous Grecian writer, Xenophon. He said that all, like Xenophon, should fully prepare themselves for any emergency in life. Mr. Bowman has a good voice and with good drill will become an effective speaker.

Mr. Bull gave us a good rendering of the old story of Catalus.

Miss Coddling's essay was very interesting. She depicted very clearly the misfortunes caused by the "blues" and gave us some excellent advice.

Mr. Corser's oration was finely written. A slight forgetfulness on his part was the only thing that marred one of the finest efforts of the evening.

Mr. Duggan is known as the winner of the first prize in declamation at the Institute this year. We are sorry he forgot some of his thrilling oration.

Mr. Lane has a fine presence and he has made marked improvement in speaking since the prize contest.

Mr. Whitney's oration was solid fact and was delivered with energy.

Mr. Bronson told us how our lives are, of ten influenced by small things. He was at ease upon the stage and did not show those defects which some times mar his speaking.

We must not forget the music of the evening. Miss Freddie Fox distinguished herself in playing "L'Orgie Bauanaie."

The instrumental solo "Home, Sweet Home," by Miss Thomas was finely rendered. The instrumental duets merit praise for their good execution.

This was the largest class that has been graduated at the Institute for several years. We are glad of this. The earnest efforts of Prof. Quinlan should be recognized. There is no school in the land where pupils receive a more thorough drill in their studies than at the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute. W.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner. If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.
Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF.
