PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

E. J. ANGLE is in the western part of the county, on business.

Mrs. H. T. JUNE has returned from her visit at Philadelphia.

Miss LIZZIE McCABE is visiting relatives and friends in Pittston.

MEL OSBORNE and GEORGE FAIRCHILDS have gone to Sullivan county, trout fishing.

Miss SARAH SHERWOOD, of Horn Brook, was visiting Miss JULIA POWELL, yesterday.

Mrs. WATKINS, of Athens township, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. M. PECK, on Chestnut street.

Rev. J. A. ROSSELL, of New Milford, father of Mrs. Col. OVERTON and Mrs. IRA B. HUMPHREY, is in town.

We were much gratified yesterday to see Mr. J. O. FROST riding out. He has had a several months' siege with the rheumatism.

R. A. MERCUR Esq., and his good wife were richly blessed yesterday afternoon in the arrival in their happy home of a girl baby.

We are pleased to learn that N. F. MARSH, conductor on the local freight between this place and Waverly is recovering from a severe illness.

F. M. NICHOLS, a prominent member of the Luzerne county bar was registered at the Elwell House last evening. He formerly resided in this county and read law here.

JOHN S. HINMAN has bought the tobacco and cigar store in Mercur block of W. REED SMALEY, will renovate and re-stock it and open for business about the first of July.

H. W. PATRICK, Esq., fell while getting out of his buggy at the L. V. station Friday morning and sustained an injury which has confined him to his bed ever since. He was feeling better last evening and we hope may soon be around again.

CHAS. D. CASH and GEO. V. KENDALL, two good machinists, left for Streator, Illinois, this morning. While we regret to lose these excellent citizens, we are pleased to learn that they have secured situations in a large establishment there at remunerative wages.

The little steambot "Welles," of Athens, arrived at this port yesterday morning. The passengers were C. H. KELLOGG, owner and Captain, W. R. URBSTER, Judge H. C. BAIRD and E. W. KELLOGG. Ex-sheriff SPALDING joined the party on the return trip in the afternoon.

We had the pleasure of a ride behind CHAS. BUFFINGTON's young and spirited pony, POLLY, yesterday. Under the tutorship of Prof. GLEASON, POLLY can now be driven without reins. Mr. BUFFINGTON expects to dispose of his pony to the next circus that comes along, at an enormous price.

Mr. ROGER HAMPSON, of Bernice, Mine Inspector, made call at our office to-day. We are much pleased with him, and we have reason to believe the mines of this district will be carefully looked after. Mr. HAMPSON intends to locate in Blossburg and wishes to secure a suitable dwelling for the use of his family, and also where he could establish his office.—Blossburg Register.

"Fountain" Tobacco, at Fitch's.

There is to be a dance of the International hotel to-night.

There will be an important meeting of the Land League this evening. Every member is requested to be present.

Make your arrangements to attend the festival to be given in aid of the Baptist Church Friday evening. You can have a pleasant time and aid a worthy cause.

The laying of the corner stone of the Union Church of Lime Hill, will take place Saturday, June 18, at 2 o'clock p. m. Preparations are making for an interesting time. Hon. GEORGE LONDON will deliver the oration.

The people of this vicinity are beginning to appreciate the advantage of having a good upholster in our midst, and we are pleased to know that Mr. OTTARSON is being well patronized. He is certainly a skillful workman and his work merits the liberal patronage bestowed upon him.

The members of Oscaluwa Grange will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival at Grange Hall on Friday evening. All who are acquainted with the people of Noreh Towanda know that it will be an enjoyable affair. The proceeds are to be appropriated towards the purchase of books for a public library.

Messrs. GARRIHAN and DODGE, the two nail-mill men referred to in yesterday's REVIEW, complain that injustice was done them in the notice. They say they were not discharged, but, with three other puddlers, quit work on account of what they considered unfair treatment; they did not flourish clubs, neither were they drunk when taken before the justice. They will have a hearing this morning.

The new school board met for organization Monday evening. The following named gentlemen were elected officers for the current year:

President—C. D. PASSAGE.
Secretary—E. M. PECK.
Treasurer—E. L. HILLIS.

A tax of 8 mills for school purposes and 2 mills for building fund was levied. A WICKHAM, Esq., who has so faithfully and economically collected the taxes for the past three or four years, was unanimously re-elected.

THE NEW ERA WASHER!—Give it a trial. It does the washing clean, in one fourth the time.

262-4w. L. S. BLASDELL, Agent.
