

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 263.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

T. P. PATCH has returned from a visit to his daughter in Corning, N. Y.

Mr. W. S. SIMPSON, is enjoying a visit from his brother, who is here on business and pleasure combined.

Prof. E. T. BURGAN has joined his wife in Pottsville and will spend a portion of his vacation at his former home in that city.

Ex-Commissioner BALDWIN and several other prominent LeRysville gentlemen are registered at the Ward House this morning.

Mrs. GOODRICH has added very materially to the comfort as well as exterior appearance of her rooms in the Ward House, by placing substantial, neat awnings over the windows.

EUGENE THOMPSON, of Towanda, Pa., contemplates opening a law office in Sayre, Pa. He has the reputation of being a thorough student and business man and of the strictest personal integrity.—Elmira Free Press.

Through the efforts of Senator DAVIES, Mrs. KELLY, of this place, whose husband was a soldier of the war of 1812, has been placed on the pension roll and will during the remainder of her natural life receive from the state an annuity of $125.

Prof. BIGELOW who has been connected with the Collegiate Institute for the past year has resigned his situation and left for his home in Washington county, N. Y., this week. He has been successful and given good satisfaction as a member of the faculty.

A letter received yesterday from Miss IRENE MASON announced her safe arrival at Omaha and the transfer of herself and baggage to the train for Rawlins, whence she will take an ambulance ride of 125 miles to the camp where her brother, Col. J. W. MASON, with his family, is stationed.

EUGENE KILMER of North Towanda attended a Good Templars' festival in Ulster Tuesday evening, and on his way home in fording Sugar Creek upset his buggy and spilled himself into the water. A cold bath is not a bad thing this warm weather, but one does not like to have his Sunday suit spoiled.

We congratulate our young friend ROBERT WILLIAMS. He has been nominated by Hon. C. C. JADWIN, Member of Congress for this District, a Cadet to West Point. His preliminary examination will take place in September. The young man is a son of our townsman, H. N. WILLIAMS, Esq., and is a conspicuously bright boy, and is possessed of just the right mettle for a good soldier. Mr. JADWIN has honored himself by the selection.

ALFRED BLACKWELL, of Burlington, one of the most active and worthy young republicans in the county, announces himself a candidate for the office of Register and Recorder, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention. In addition to being in every way qualified for the office, Mr. BLACKWELL belongs to a large and highly respectable family whose republicanism has never been questioned and who have never been honored with office.

R. M. WELLES & Co. have an acre and a half of strawberries on Mr. WELLES' farm on Towanda flats.

The L. V. pay car was here Tuesday and as a consequence business, especially at the grocery stores, was lively in town yesterday.

At last accounts all efforts to recover the body of the little ASPINWALL boy who was drowned in Hastings, Minn., some days since, had proved unavailing.

NOTICE.—Private business demanding my entire time and attention, I reluctantly resign my position on the police force to which I was recently appointed by the Borough Council. With sincere thanks to the friends through whose partiality the honor was conferred upon me,

I am, very gratefully,

SENECA L. ARNOLD.

June 14, 1881.

Owing to the fact that a small admission fee will be charged at the Baptist festival, the committee having charge of the arrangements, say a reduction will be made in the price of refreshments.

The members of Oscaluwa Grange will hold a strawberry and ice cream festival at Grange Hall on Friday evening. All who are acquainted with the people of North Towanda know that it will be an enjoyable affair. The proceeds are to be appropriated towards the purchase of books for a public library.
