By a reference to the notice in another column it will be seen that our enterprising and successful young townsman, N. P. The Baptist festival begins at 5 o'clock.

The Original New Orleans Minstrels at Mercur Hall, to-night.

Owing to the absence of the rector, there was no service at Christ Church last evening.

A new Odd Fellows Temple was dedicated with imposing ceremonies in Elmira yesterday.

Don't forget the Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival, for the benefit of the Baptist Church to be held in the store lately occupied by Powell & Co., south side of Means' Block, this evening.

Yesterday being the festival of Corpus Christi, very imposing services were conducted in the Church of SS. Peter and Paul. The venerable Bishop O'HARA was present and the large edifice was crowded to overflowing by the faithful.

Lawyer GRIDLEY found a demented old lady sitting on the steps of the East Towanda depot last evening, and as she seemed unable to give any account of herself brought her over to town, where she attracted a good deal of attention by her strange appearance. An examination of papers in her satchel disclosed the fact that her name was NICHOLAS and that she was en route from the west to Phillipsburg, N. J. She had letters stating that her son was a locomotive engineer, and commending her to the care of train men.— Mine host KELLOGG kindly took charge of her and put her on train 15 last night. The old lady said she had a son living across the river from Easton.

A SUGGESTION OF OUR OWN.—We are not in anyway connected with the festival to be given this evening—but wish it abundant success; neither do we anticipate attending the minstrel performance in Mercur Hall, but there are those who, believing that

A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the best of men, will be there: Now, therefore, this is our suggestion, if you have determined to go the minstrel show, start early and drop into the festival first, (the ladies will be glad to see you), or call on your way home and provide yourself with a good treat to strawberries and ice cream. No one will suspect you have been to the show.

The Festival will open at five o'clock.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

Owing to the fact that a small admission fee will be charged at the Baptist festival, the committee having charge of the arrangements, say a reduction will be made in the price of refreshments.

When you're down town drop in and try a dish of the celebrated ice cream at Titus' confectionery store. It can't be beat. They also have elegant Florida oranges, lemons, pine apples and bananas constantly on hand. Give them a call.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Partly cloudy; local rains; southerly, veering to westerly winds, and lower barometer.
