DEATH OF CLAUD CURRY.

Six months in his little cradle lay
Waiting for the final day.
As he has often said,
"O ma, is there any four-years there?"
His little arms around her neck,
And sweetly kiss mama and pa,
And then he said "O meet me there."
One that loves.
T. E. BAILER.

A serious accident befel a young man named Charles Depew, who resides in Keeler Hollow, Smithfield township, while opening a new road in that township on Tuesday. Two men were cutting down a tree, and not giving notice soon enough, Depew, who was at work near, was caught and crushed to the ground by its fall. His right leg was fractured near the hip and some contusions resulted upon other parts of the body. Dr. E. P. Allen was called to attend his injuries and reduce the fracture. He expressed an opinion that the wounds were not necessarily of a dangerous nature.

Mr. Depew has a wife and one child and will receive the sympathy of all in his misfortune. WILL.

Green's Landing, June 16.

The New Orleans Minstrel company at the Opera House last night was greeted with a good audience, the gallery and over half the body of the house being filled. This company had with them the band that has visited this city for quite a while, and their beautiful instruments attracted considerable con-ment. The introductory overture and chorus including their comic songs and funny sayings, was well executed, and greatly pleased the audience. The singing by the quartette was fine indeed, and loudly applauded. The cornet playing of Mr. L. P. Benjamin was a feat of musical skill that received a hearty encore. The clog dancing of Pearl and Weldy was as finely executed as any that we have seen, and showed that they are artists in their specialties. The baritone solo "Swanee River," and variations by Mrs. Nellie Gorton, seemed to be especially well received. Taken altogether, the performance last evening was considerably above the average, and the audience departed running over with laughter.—Jacksonville, Ill., Journal.

This famous company will appear in Mercur Hall this, Friday evening.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c.
A. C. WOODRUFF.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.
If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.
