

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 265.

TOWANDA, PA., SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. J. BILL MEANS, of Sayre, was in town yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE PLUMMER, of New Albany and Miss COOK, of Liberty Corners, are visiting at D. O. HOLLON'S in North Towanda.

Mrs. SENECA ARNOLD and her daughters, EMMA and NETTIE, are visiting relatives and friends in Susquehanna county, and will be absent two weeks.

JOHN N. CALIFF, Esq., has returned from his western trip, which was extended some distance beyond Fargo, D. T. He was much pleased with the North-west.

Miss REIFSNYDER, of Catawissa, and Miss HELEN SCOTT of Towanda township, are spending a few days with their cousin, Mrs. MYRON SMITH, in East Towanda.

Col. MASON suffered a partial paralytic stroke on Thursday night. He was apparently in the enjoyment of his usual health on retiring and the attack came suddenly upon him about 3 o'clock in the morning, affecting the left side of his body and the right side of his head and face. His condition was improving last evening and we hope to soon see the Colonel around again.

It affords us much pleasure to hear good report from JOHN NEAL, a former employe of this office. About a year ago he took the advice of the late H. GREELY, and went West. He is now located at Alpena, Mich., and has just been appointed general manager and city editor of a stock company newspaper. JOHN has ability and we have no doubt will earn promotion.

There will be a meeting of the Managers of the Agricultural Society on the Fair Grounds this afternoon.

The Wysox Cornet Band will give a Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival on Tuesday evening, June 21, at Grange Hall. Everybody is cordially invited.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—JOHN ORCUTT met with a serious and painful accident in HICK'S factory yesterday. While engaged operating a circular saw, his right arm was in some manner thrown in contact with the teeth and the hand nearly severed. The small bone of the fore-arm was cut entirely off and the large one injured. The wound was dressed by Doctors PRATT and LADD, who expressed the opinion that the use of the limb would eventually be restored. But Mr. ORCUTT will be laid up for a long time. He is one of our most upright, respected citizens, and will receive the hearty sympathy of all who know him.

Monroe.

JUNE 17th, 1881.

Monroe loses J. S. Hinman, but Towanda will get some tastefully selected cigars by the means. John likes a good cigar himself. He will be a little to liberal in omitting the profits. Can't help it he was made so.

M. V. Marey is most encouragingly patronized in his new saloon on the east side of Main street. He can draw custom without ardent.

Monroe is the place for the Fourth. A tub race on the pond, a sack race, a forty-rod foot race for five dollars, swings, the pavilion the grove, the dinner. All the A. M. and evening make up, with other excitements the largest bill of fare that I have seen for years.

In the bereavement of George Curry and wife (colored) in the loss of their bright little boy, the citizens rendered commendable assistance, showing that they knew how to feel for others woes. NON DE PLUME.

THE NEW ORLEANS MINSTRELS.—A body of fine looking and gentlemanly appearing men reached our town yesterday. Their open air Concert was remarkably fine. Every horn from the E flat to the tu ba, was held and blown by a master musician. In solo and in harmony, their pure, elastic and golden tones were a revelation of instrumental perfection seldom heard except in the largest cities.

At their Concert last evening, Mercur Hall was densely crowded; our most intelligent people being largely in attendance; and hundreds were compelled to stand throughout the performance.

The quartette is made up of fresh and true toned voices. The Orchestra produced pleasant, well balanced, harmonious and very delightful accompaniments. The wit of the end men was new, ingenious, and heartily received. The clog and variety dancing was probably the best ever seen in this town and brought down the house repeatedly. The character changes of Mr. STOWE were novel and astonishing. In so long a programme there was little to weary even the middle aged of the audience and the young seemed delighted throughout.

Death of Mr. Carnochan.

MORTUUS EST.—Captain WARNER H. CARNOCHAN died at his residence on Chestnut street at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, aged 41 years.

WARNER HAYDEN CARNOCHAN was the oldest son of the late N. M. CARNOCHAN, and was born in Troy this county February 1840. He was educated in the public school and academy of that village. While quite young he learned carriage trimming, but having a fondness for the legal profession, he early began the study of the law, preparing himself by attending a seminary at Andover, N. Y.—During the years he was fitting himself for his profession he taught several terms of school, but on reaching the required age—21 years, he was admitted to the bar, having pursued his studies in the office Judge MERCUR. Although never physically strong, and with many others at first opposed to the war, after Sumter was fired upon his patriotism was aroused and he took an active interest in the great struggle. He was elected and served as Lieutenant in a nine months regiment; he was afterwards employed as paymaster's clerk in Florida. In 1864, at the second invasion of Pennsylvania, he raised a company of "emergency men" and proceeded to Harrisburg. All who were at the state capitol on that occasion will recall the confusion and dissatisfaction which existed among the large body of men assembled there, amounting almost to a revolt, over the proposition to swear the men into the U. S. service for an indefinite period. Capt. CARNOCHAN saw that something must be done to stay the tide or Camp Curtin would be deserted or become the scene of a disgraceful mob. Forming his company in line he told them that he considered the situation a very grave one; that he should tender his services, and concluded by requesting all who would join him to take one step forward. The men stood by him; others followed their example and order was soon restored. In the spring of 1865 he was appointed by Secretary STANTON, a quarter-master, but the war closed before he reported for duty.

After the war he resumed his legal practice at Troy and soon became prominent in his profession. In 1869 he was elected District Attorney, and discharged the duties with marked ability. Six years ago he removed to this place and entered into partnership with W. T. DAVIES. His career as a lawyer has been a remarkably brilliant one, notwithstanding he was compelled to battle against that most insidious and deceptive disease, consumption, inherited from his parents. He was looked up to as a model practitioner, a thoroughly honest and conscientious man.

His final sickness confined him to his bed for six months, but he bore the confinement uncomplainingly and when the final summons came quietly passed away.

"Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him
And lies down to pleasant dreams."

Mr. CARNOCHAN was married in 1865 to Miss SOPHIA PARSONS, who with four children mourns the great loss. They have the sympathy of the entire community. The death of one of so much ability and promise will be esteemed a public calamity by the people of this county.

Funeral services will be observed at the house to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Afterwards the remains will be taken to Troy for burial.

The News Condensed.

It is reported at St. Louis that several Eastern roads are cutting rates on wheat and flour to New York.

Louise sent her condolences to the Quebec sufferers, but her purse seems to have been left in her other gown.

The loss by the burning of the Pierpont stores, in Brooklyn, is now variously estimated at from 500,000 to 1,000,000 dollars.

An attempt was made Saturday to blow up the statue of Theirs at St. Germaine, with a box of powder. The statue was slightly injured.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Fair, with variable winds, mostly north-westerly; higher barometer, and near the coast, higher temperature.

STRAWBERRIES not being as abundant as they promised, and ripening more slowly and later than anticipated, we withdraw our advertisement for the present.

We expect to have choice strawberries ripening for two or three weeks to come.
