LU MALLORY is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. R. M. WELLES donated the strawberries for the Baptist festival.

Miss SARAH MOODY returned from her visit in New York Saturday evening.

Miss CHAMBERLIN'S school held a picnic in the grove at the head of Houstin street, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT LONG started Saturday on a trip to Norwalk, Ohio, where they go to visit Mrs. LONG'S parents.

Mrs. BARSTOW and Mrs. and Miss CARRIE JOHNSON returned Saturday evening from their visit with Dr. BARSTOW'S family, at Easton, Md.

Miss ELISE MERCUR, who has been attending school at Rye, N. Y., came home Saturday, and will spend the summer vacation with her parents in this place.

PARK SMITH and wife left for Avoca on Saturday. After spending a few weeks with friends there they propose to proceed to the Adirondacks, for a short sojourn.

WILL KING, who has been confined to his home for several months past, by a severe attack of rheumatism, we are pleased to announce was able to be down town on Saturday.

Rev. IRVING WHITE, who is visiting his brother-in-law, J. E. HITCHCOCK, of the Reporter, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit yesterday and delivered two very excellent discourses.

Mrs. Dr. PORTER gave a party Friday afternoon in honor of her little grand daughters, FANNIE and HELEN PORTER. The score or two of little children present seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

Two weeks from to-day will be the "ever glorious."

Remember the Excursion to New York, to-morrow morning.

The festival given by Oscalwa Grange on Friday evening was well attended and all present had a good time.

Several young people from here will take in the New York Excursion, which leaves here with train 8, to-morrow morning.

The cattle referred to Saturday as having been sold by our friend NICHOLS of Burlington, brought a good price, but the sum named was just a hundred dollars too much. The figures should have read $705 04.

A stranger, 45-years of age, heavy built, moustache and chin whiskers, who wore a dark linen duster and straw hat, hired DECKER & WARD'S cream colored mare and a light side-bar buggy, Thursday morning, with the understanding that he was to be back the same evening. Up to last evening nothing had been heard of man or horse. Mr. DECKER started in pursuit on Saturday.

Mr. W. H. WITTER, representing J. AUSTIN SHAW Esq., the nurseryman, of Rochester, N. Y., is in town and will call on our citizens. He shows a magnificent lot of illustrations of his stock, many of them varieties controlled by the firm, and his testimonials prove both himself and his employer worthy of every confidence. We commend him to the public and trust many may deem it wise to purchase from him.

On Friday afternoon while the two little children of WM. BILES residing near the Nail Works, were playing in the yard, the little boy aged about five years, struck his little sister on the head, by accident, causing a severe scalp wound, the hoe penetrating the bone about half an inch. Dr. MINGOS was called and dressed the wound.

A few years ago a relative of Mr. BILES, living in North Towanda had a little boy kill-by being hit by his younger brother, only 3 years of age, in about the same manner, only the instrument penetrated deeper into the brain.

Moral: Parents don't let your children play with garden tools.

A BIG BUT TRUE FISH STORY.—WM. K. MARSHALL is something of a fisherman. The other morning when he hauled in his out-line he found nineteen eels and a large number of other fish. But that is not the whole of the story. On one hook there appeared to be both an eel and a black bass; but on closer examination Mr. M. discovered that the eel had taken the hook and in some way forced its body under the gills of the bass in such manner as to hold it. Next.

CAPT. CARNOCHAN'S FUNERAL.—W. H. CARNOCHAN was buried at his former home in Troy yesterday. Brief services were conducted at his late residence in this place at 9 o'clock in the morning by Rev. Doctor STEWART, after which the remains were conveyed by special train to Troy. The arrangements for the burial were made by the bar association and were in charge of O. D. KINNEY, Esq. The pall-bearers were Judge MORROW, Col. SMITH, N. C. ELSBREE, D'A. OVERTON, General MADILL, H. N. WILLIAMS, Capt. B. M. PECK and W. J. YOUNG. Each member of the bar wore a button-hole bouquet of white flowers, and the casket was covered with floral designs. A large procession followed the remains to the train and many citizens, in addition to the members of the bar, accompanied them to Troy, where the train arrived about 1 o'clock, p. m. A very large concourse of friends from Troy and adjacent towns were assembled at the station on the arrival of the train, bearing eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which Mr. CARNOCHAN was held by the people of western Bradford. The large and beautiful Presbyterian church was crowded with those who had met to mingle their sorrow with that of the afflicted family and pay the last tribute of respect to the distinguished dead. The pastors of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches took part in the services, and Doctor STEWART pronounced a touchingly beautiful and appropriate eulogy, after which the remains were followed by a large procession to Glenwood cemetery where they were deposited in their last resting place.

The deceased was the attorney of the P. & N. Y. and the N. C. railroads, and the former company kindly furnished a train free of charge—President PACKER very thoughtfully providing his own private car for the family. Superintendent STEVENSON, of the P. & N. Y., and Assistant Superintendent FITCH of the Northern Central, attended the funeral, as did also G. M. DIVEN and Mr. YEOMANS of the Elmira bar.

Mr. JOHN PARSONS had made provision at the Troy House for dinners for the Towanda friends, but the citizens of Troy vied with each other in entertaining the delegation.

Capt. B. B. MITCHELL acted as master of ceremonies at Troy and all the arrangements were carried out in the most orderly manner.

The return trip was made in about two hours. W. WOODWARD was conductor of the train, MILES ELLIS, engineer and JESSEE WILSON, fireman.

When you're down town drop in and try a dish of the celebrated ice cream at Titus' confectionery store. It can't be beat. They also have elegant Florida oranges, lemons, pine apples and bananas constantly on hand. Give them a call.
