Personal.

Miss NELLIE BRISACK, of Oneonta, N. Y., is visiting Mrs. J. E. HITCKCOCK, on Pine street.

S. H. SACKETT is home from Slaterville, looking much improved by his sojourn there. He will go back.

Col. A. G. MASON, of Pittston, was in town over Sunday, having been called here by the illness of his father.

Miss FLORA Thurber who has been visiting relatives and friends in Ulster for the past week has returned home.

Rev. Mr. RICE, of Scranton, assisted pastor WRIGHT in the services at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning.

Miss MAY ADAMS is in Rochester this week attending Commencement at Miss BLISS' Young Ladies Seminary—her alma mater.

Mr. HOLCOMB of the Republican, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mrs. PORTER, is taking in the editorial excursion to Long Branch.

STEPHEN G. GORHAM has been appointed postmaster of LeRay'sville, vice L. L. BOWORTH, who has very acceptably filled the position for the past twenty years.

We could not imagine what made PERRIN PENNYPACKER look so happy yesterday, but have just learned the secret—a new girl baby put in an appearance at his house Sunday morning.

Dr. W. H. MERCUR, who has been attending the summer course at the University of Pennsylvania, returned home yesterday morning and will remain here until another term begins.

C. S. MAURICE, Mrs. R. A. PACKER, W. R. WEBSTER, and Miss NELLIE PERKINS took a canoe ride from this place to Towanda one day last week, returning on the afternoon express with their canoes.—Athens Gazette.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. FROST, both of whom have been invalids for some time, have gone to Slaterville, N. Y., to test the healing virtues of the famous magnetic springs. Their many friends join in wishing them speedy and permanent recovery.

TREADWELL, the enterprising agent of the Binghamton Republican, spent Sunday in town, and judging from appearances, we should say that he has other interests besides those of the paper he represents, which attract him to our enterprising village.

Mrs. N. N. BETTS, sr., is sojourning at the Fountain House, Slaterville, N. Y. While there is peculiar healing virtue in the magnetic water that comes bubbling out of the ground there, the Fountain House affords the health-seeker all the enjoyments of a pleasant rural home.

E. C. SHOEMAKER, whose name is as familiar as "household words," in every family hereabouts where good flour is appreciated, has just accepted a position as foreman of a large mill in Geneva, N. Y. Ed's reputation as a first-class miller will undoubtedly gain many customers in the place and vicinity.

ANOTHER TOWANDA BOY HEARD FROM.—We find the following in the McPherson, (Kan.) Freeman of a late date:

Mr. A. E. NICHOLS, a son of Squire Nichols, who has been spending a few months here with his father, has secured a situation in the Union depot at Atchinson. He is a steady young man, a good telegraph operator, and a fine penman, and should succeed.

We congratulate BERT on his success in the west.

Among those who started on the excursion to New York this morning were the following: Mrs. M. J. and FANNIE LONG, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. SCOTT, W. H. SMITH and wife, W. A. CHAMBERLIN, H. C. PORTER, C. L. TRACY, C. D. HUMPHREY, Prof. QUINLAN, and GEORGE MARSHALL, of this place, Hon. HORACE HORTON, Shores Hill, Dr. BRADFORD, of Columbia, J. F. MORLEY, Burlington, W. W. WHITMAN and T. BURKE, Canton,

Dr. W. P. GRIFFITHS having received his diploma from the University of Pennsylvania, as an M. D., is spending a short vacation at his home in this place. We are pleased to learn that the Doctor will begin practice under peculiarly favorable circumstances, as he has decided to locate in Louisville, Ky., where his uncle, Dr. GEO. W. GRIFFITHS, enjoys an extensive and lucrative practice, which he has generously offered to share with his nephew, thus affording him a remunerative practice at the beginning of his professional career.

In describing the class-day exercises at the Elmira College, the Free Press thus speaks of Miss PETRIE's effort:—"The essay of Miss ANNIE M. PETRIE of Barclay, Pa., on the 'Scotch in America,' was a bright, sparkling and earnest setting forth of what America owes to Scotchmen and Scotch influences. It was one of the best efforts of the day. During the reading some of the clergymen on the platform seemed so well pleased with it, that the fair young reader was stopped for a little by applause from them. We do not recollect another instance of the kind in the history of the college. Miss PETRIE's essay closed the essays for the day and contained the few valedictory thoughts usual on the occasion. They were well expressed, containing among other things some very pleasant allusions to the former lady principal of the institution, Miss ANNA BRONSON.

PATCH & TRACY shipped about 140 packages of butter yesterday morning.

JOHN LINES has closed out his meat market, and the building he occupied is being transformed into a bowling-alley.

Two pocket handkerchiefs—one plain white and other partly colored were picked up in the third ward Sunday evening. Owners can have them by calling at this office.

Mrs. ALVIN STEPHENS, formerly of Troy this county, died in Cleveland on Friday morning last. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. J. M. FOX of this place and H. C. BAIRD of Athens.

HANNAH SNYDER, mother of WM. SNYDER, Esq., of Sheshequin, died on Sunday at the advanced age of nearly 90 years. The funeral will take place at the Church in Sheshequin, to-day at 11 o'clock.

Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock a fire broke out in the second story of S. KIRBY & SONS' store in Nichols, N. Y. The building was entirely destroyed, but much of the goods were saved. The building was valued at $2,000 and insured for $1,200. The stock was insured $3,000 which will cover loss. The fire is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion, as the store room was filled with paper rags.—Waverly Review.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.
