A man named JEROLEMAN has taken the mail route between Canton and this place, as sub-contractor.

Mr COLBURN PRESTON died in Union, Tioga County, the 30th ult., aged 90 years. He was born in Vermont, came to Troy, this county about 1810 and was a soldier of the war of 1812.

A gentleman who was in Dushore the other day informs us that men employed in taking down a portion of the old Fairchilds' tavern in that village, found nearly two hundred dollars in gold concealed under a stone beneath the fire-place. The treasure had evidently been there a long time.

By intelligence received from the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., it appears that still another comet has just been discovered by Dr. GOULD, Director of the Cordova Observatory, Argentine Republic, South America. This comet seems to be the great comet of 1807, and is located in the Constellation of the Dove, Right Ascension 6 hours and Declination South 30 degrees. It is not visible from this latitude and not known yet that it will be, although it is likely to be as the comet of 1807 was distinctly seen. No apprehension need be had over the unusual appearance of comets during the present year as they do not possess the power to work injury upon the earth or any other planet.

Second Assistant Postmaster-General RICHARD A. ELMER celebrated the eleventh anniversary of his wedding and also his birthday on Thursday evening last by a quiet dinner at the Arlington, at which the postmaster general and Mrs. JAMES, Dr. J. H. BAXTER, of the Army, and wife, Mrs. H. G. PEARSON, wife of the postmaster at New York, and JOHN R. VANWORMER were present. The table was set in one of the front parlors of the old Johnson mansion, and was beautifully and tastefully appointed, the flowers attracting special attention by reason of their profusion and rareness. A beautiful centerpiece was contributed by Mr. ROBERT A. PACKER, of Sayre, Pa., one of Gen. ELMER's personal friends and business partners in railroad enterprises.—Washington Sunday Herald.

HONORING SUPERINTENDENT THOMAS.—The people of Port Jervis tendered BENJ. F. THOMAS, the newly appointed Assistant General Superintendent of the Erie road a serenade on Saturday evening last. An account of the interesting event occupies nearly two columns in the Port Jervis Union. That paper says one bouquet presented by a gentleman of the place, contained 31 varieties of roses, so arranged as to beautifully represent the rice of Mr. THOMAS in his field of labor, from telegraph operator to train dispatcher, thence to the superintendency of the Delaware division, and finally to the assistant superintendency of the entire road. The idea was as poetical and appropriate as the bouquet was lovely and fragrant. The Erie operators sent in handsome floral tributes which were placed in conspicuous places.

Hon. E. L. CARR delivered an address expressing the high esteem in which Mr. THOMAS and his wife are held in Port Jervis, where they have long resided. The Superintendent responded in a brief speech, returning thanks for the many kindnesses extended to himself and family.

Although Mr. THOMAS left Towanda while a mere boy, he has many friends here who take a lively interest in his welfare and sincerely rejoice over his success.

"A traveler by the Lehigh Valley road plunges into magnificent revelations of grandeur almost from the start. The rare beauty of the Wyoming Valley has been embalmed in history, has been chanted by the poet and has been transferred to canvass by the artist. But neither the trailing pen of the historian, the dreamy interpretations of the muse, nor the bright brush of the painter, have ever reached the climax of rapture, the true height of magic, surprise and glorious revelations that are unfolded from the car window of the road that twines upwards around and along the glorious mountains that flank Wilkes-Barre upon the east. Whether seen at morning when the sun is just sending his golden beams over the vast expanse of wood, field, river and hill, or at noon when the whole broad picture lies like a dream under, wondering yes, or whether he gaze at it in the calm hour of twilight, when the sloping shadows break in between the long dashes of sunlight, it is ever grand, beautiful and enchanting."

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF.

HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.

- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
