Personal.

Mrs. HALLOWELL and children are visiting in Troy.

HOEACE ATWATER, of New York, is registered at the Ward House.

Mrs. GOODRICH has returned from her visit in Philadelphia and Hazleton.

Rev. HALLOWELL and I. MIDDAUGH were out bass fishing yesterday.

Master KNOWLTON MIXER, of Buffalo, N. Y., is the guest of ROBBIE MERCUR.

W. C. BOGART, Esq., has potatoes as large as goose eggs, grown in his garden this season.

Col. OVERTON'S son, Master FRANK, is the guest of FRANK EILENBERGER at the Laddsbury trout ponds.

Doctor JOHNSON of Waverly, came down yesterday morning and spent the day with his brother, Doctor T. B. JOHNSON in this place.

Hon. GILES ROBERTS, one of the most enterprising citizens and a leading republican of Wyoming county, is in town as a witness in the equity suit.

Mrs. S. B. EILENBERGER, her daughter, Miss LIDA, and son, Master FRANK have gone to Mr. E.'s trout ponds at Laddsbury, to rusticate a few weeks.

Mr. R. M. WELLES has left at this office two baskets of Sharpless strawberries, of mammoth size and most delicious flavor, for which we return our best thanks.

We very much regret to learn that JAKE MARSH, of this place, met with an accident on the cars in Kansas City the other day, necessitating the amputation of a foot.

Hon. HORACE HORTON of Shores Hill, alleged mail contractor, was registered at the Ward House yesterday. He says the Star Route investigations do not disturb him.

Hon. E. L. HILLIS says he feels more than compensated for the loss of the $500 which the State Treasurer refused to pay him.—Mrs. HILLIS yesterday morning presented him with a beautiful girl baby.

Mr. GUY PECK has taken a clerkship in the Citizens National Bank and under the training he will receive there, we prophesy will make an excellent banker. He is an intelligent, honest, conscientious boy.

FRED MERCUR, general superintendent of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co., at Wilkes-Barre, arrived in town last evening, accompanied by his wife and family, and are guests at the Central Hotel.—Hazleton Sentinel.

The Athens correspondent of the Sunday Telegram says: "We regret to learn that our old friend, ELY WRIGHT, who recently moved from here to Wassau, Wis., had his right hand so badly mangled that it became necessary to amputate all the fingers."

Doctor NEWELL, of Wyalusing, who enjoys the reputation of being one of the very best dentists and most correct business men in city or country, was in town at an early hour yesterday morning, looking as bright as a new Bland dollar, and his face the very picture of happiness. It was all explained when we heard him shout to a friend, "It's a boy!" Mother and baby both doing well.

The heaviest shower of the season was experienced last evening.

A coal train off the track at Meshoppen detains No 8 this morning. It will not reach here till 8 or 9 o'clock.

A six months' old baby of Mrs. CROWLY in East Towanda, walks with perfect ease all about the house.

JOHN CONKLIN, a former resident of Ulster, died in Oil City, last week. The remains were brought to Ulster for burial.

Another disgraceful row in Arcade block Sunday evening. Not very pleasant for respectable residents of the neighborhood.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, will meet to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Mrs. JOHN E. FOX'S.

Naiad Fire Co., of this place have accepted an invitation from the Athens Fire Co., to visit that place on the Fourth. They will be accompanied by the Liberty Corners Band.

The new draught team lately put on the wagon run by LORMORE & TOMPKINS are very generally admired. They are blacks, weigh thirty hundred, and were purchased from a Bradford county farm. They walk away with a loaded wagon just as if they didn't know it was there.—Elmira Adv. This is the team Mr. HAGERMAN of Asylum sold.

The News Condensed.

Captain Boycott and family sailed for England from New York on Saturday afternoon.

Moses Whitcomb, for twenty-five years superintendent of the United States Senate is dead.

There is a growing impression in New York that a conclusion of the Senatorial fight will be reached this week.

Mrs. Garfield continues at Long Branch. The President and Secretaries Hunt and James returned to Washington yesterday.

Prof. Draper, of New York, successfully photographed the comet on Friday night. It is said this is the first time that this has ever been done.

Reports from forty towns in Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia, regarding the condition of crops and of business are very encouraging.

A Mr. Christmas, the son-in-law of the famous Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines, shot and instantly killed Mr. Whitney, the son of Mrs. Gaines by her first husband.

A railroad accident in Mexico on Saturday caused the death of two hundred soldiers. Only sixty persons on the train escaped alive, and of these forty were injured.

It is asserted that Count Herbert Bismark will be appointed Minister to Washington after his marriage with the Countess Carolath, with whom he eloped some time ago.

A dispatch from Denver, Col., gives details of an attack by Pahutes upon cattle-men; a two days' running fight was kept up; many Indian and some white men were killed.

"Fountain" Tobacco, at Fitch's.

When you're down town drop in and try a dish of the celebrated ice cream at Titus' confectionery store. It can't be beat. They also have elegant Florida oranges, lemons, pine apples and bananas constantly on hand. Give them a call.

Mr. W. H. WITTER, representing J. AUSTIN SHAW Esq., the nurseryman, of Rochester, N. Y., is in town and will call on our citizens. He shows a magnificent lot of illustrations of his stock, many of them varieties controlled by the firm, and his testimonials prove both himself and his employer worthy of every confidence. We commend him to the public and trust many may deem it wise to purchase from him.

Have you noticed those handsome windows at C. F. Cross' book store? If not, go there and inspect them; then do thou likewise by decorating your transom and side lights around your front door, or a bath room window, or perhaps an office window, or in fact any glass in store, house or office that needs shading from the sun, and still receive the benefit of all the light. Many of our citizens are availing themselves of an inexpensive and handsome decoration, by using "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained Glass," for which we have the exclusive agency of Northern Pennsylvania, and a great variety of patterns on hand testify to the fact that we can please any who may favor us with calls in that line.
