REUBEN HAIGHT, a well known, prominent citizen of Burlington township, died at his home near Mountain Lake Sunday evening. It is supposed an injury received some time since, by a horse falling upon him was the cause of his death.

Everybody who visited Harrisburg during the latter years of JOHN SMULL, made his acquaintance as he was one of the most conspicuous men about the State Capitol. His constant companion was a little black-and-tan dog. The Harrisburg Patriot of Saturday thus notices the death of the canine.

The famous black-and-tan terrier, Dolly, a pet of the late JOHN A. SMULL, and a cherished favorite of WILLIAM P. SMULL, died yesterday morning, aged twenty-one years, and was buried on the premises of Mr. SMULL'S residence. In 1861, Dolly took her seat on the desk of the late resident clerk of the house, JOHN A. SMULL, where she sat every day the legislature was in session until the death of Mr. SMULL. She was a general favorite with all and received many caresses from the great political leaders of Pennsylvania and others. Dolly's death has touched a tender place in the heart of her master.

The following act of the Legislature, which is now a law, is important to both school directors and teachers:

SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the school directors of the several school districts of this Commonwealth, and they are hereby required to allow the school teachers employed in the said school districts, who are actually engaged in teaching school therein, the time and wages whilst attending and participating in the exercises of the annual county institutes for the improvement of teachers.

SEC. 2. That at the close of the annual sessions of the said institutes, it shall be the duty of the several county, city and borough superintendents to make a report to each Board of School Directors in their respective jurisdictions, setting forth the number of days that each teacher shall have attended and participated in the exercises of the said annual Teachers' Institute, which said report shall be the basis for allowing the teachers their time and wages; provided that the provisions of this act shall not extend to the First School District of Pennsylvania, nor to the counties wherein special laws regulating or relating to county institutes are in force.

HONORS TO A WILKES-BARRE PUPIL.—The commencement exercises of St. Cecilia's Convent school of Scranton, took place in the Academy of Music at that place yesterday afternoon, and in them Miss ANNIE O'NEILL, daughter of D. L. O'NEILL, Esq., of this city, one of the graduates, took a prominent part. Of her musical attainments the Republican of this morning says: "Miss O'NEILL may be regarded as phenomenal. Her rendition of a morceau from Il Trovatore displayed a fine conception of the power of music in the interpretation of the loftiest sentiments, her touch being exquisite and her style unexceptionable. In her accompaniments she displayed the same elevated taste and correct judgment." Miss O'NEILL was also one of four who upon two pianos, played the "Trumpets of War," she accompanied Miss HANNAH LYNOTT'S vocal solo, "Last Hours of Joan of Arc," and was one of the three who recited the valedictory, which the Republican notes as a touching poetic production. She was awarded a silver medal for proficiency in arithmetic and algebra, and a laurel wreath and gold cross for proficiency in music.—Union-Leader, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. O'NEILL is a native of this county, and his father lives in Overton.

Monroe.

Decidedly mean, to break in, or get into Frank Wenck's house the other night and steal that fourteen dollars from his pants pocket, while he was sleeping so very sound; his own and wife's hard earnings for a week or so. After this let Mr. Wenck put his money in his wife's hands while he "sleeps," and it will be hid as my wife hides her's, where neither burglars nor husband can find it.

D. C. Salsbury, Esq., formerly of Monroe, but of late years a resident of North Carolina, is visiting his boyhood home and friends here for a few days: His daughter, Mrs. Montanye, of Towanda, also receives his attentions. His southern home has well nigh eradicated his old rheumatic complaint and he bids fair for a topographical business on earth for many years yet. We are most heartily pleased with his vivacious appearance, and wish him at least a thousand good times in the future.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Dodge, as well as L. L. Lyon, Esq., and daughter, of this place, upon their safe return from the excursion to the metropolitan city, all sound.

Mrs. Bertha, wife of W. S. Cramer, Esq., of Canton, with her daughters, Minnie and Carrie and Master Eugene, are visiting her mother, Mrs. M. M. Coolbaugh, and the grand parents and friends in this place. They made our old sanctum as musical as a canary bird cage for the space of an hour. Glad to see them. N. D. P.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.
Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF.

This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it.
