The new law, giving teachers pay, will increase the attendance at the teachers' institute to be held here in August.

Sheriff DEAN is superintending work on his farm in South Creek. We believe he is erecting himself a new house which he proposes to occupy at the expiration of his term of office.

A gentleman who keeps himself posted in regard to such matters, directs our attention to the fact that the county jail is becoming depopulated. He considers it an ominous sign. There are but five prisoners in jail at present.

Mrs. BARSTOW has added to the appearance of her residence by cutting the branches from a large locust tree in the front yard which had become unsightly and unsafe from age. The trunk will be allowed to stand as a support for climbing vines.

FRED WILCOX, of the Argus office, has gone to Cape May to assist his brother-in-law in conducting a hotel during the heated term. His arrival in Philadelphia is thus chronicled in the Press of Monday: "The signature of Hon. F. L. WILDOX of Towanda, Pa., is on the register of the Washington Hotel."

We saw at RODGERS' factory the other day two clear pine planks, twenty-five feet long, 2 inches thick and more 2 feet wide, containing over two hundred feet. They were valued at $13. The lumber was purchased from Mr. M. A. SHAW and was manufactured in Canada. The planks were made into "cutting boards" for HUMPHREY BROTHERS & TRACY.

My God! so tender and true,
How dreary life would be
Without the sweet companionship
I always find in Thee!
Wash me anew in Jesus' blood,
And guide me by Thy hand,
Until in heaven I see Thy face
And in Thy glory stand.

—R. Lindsay.

The anniversary celebration of Crystal Lodge K. of H. which comes off at Mercur Hall to-morrow evening promises to be a very enjoyable affair. The several committees are busy perfecting arrangements. The amplifying of the fourth degree work will give the uninitiated some idea of what the teachings of the Order are. The entertainment is to conclude with a banquet, prepared by the ladies.

Owego Gazette: Mr CORNELIUS BROOKS, of Tioga Centre, while cleaning up some roots etc., from a piece of land which he had been clearing of stumps, last Thursday, at a moment when his attention was attracted elsewhere, suddenly became conscious of a crawling sensation about one of his legs. Looking down he discovered a huge blacksnake coiling itself about his leg, together with a piece of root which he was holding in his hand. In his other hand Mr. BROOKS had a sharp axe, and with a strange presence of mind he coolly waited until the reptile's head came across the piece of root in passing around for the third coil and deliberately struck with his axe and cut the snake's head off. It was a monster of a snake, as large as a man's wrist and over six feet long.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c.

HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
