The Sunday School of the Universalist Church will hold its Annual Picnic at Ellenberger's Fish Ponds, on Tuesday July 12. Members of the School and their friends will assemble at the Church at Half Past Nine A. M. The train will leave the Court House at Ten o'clock precisely and return at Five o'clock P. M. The services of the Germania Band have been secured for the occasion. A pleasant time is expected.

A visit to Mount Pisgah, in Springfield township, on a clear day will amply repay the visitor. Mt. Pisgah is a spur of the Appalachin range, is four miles north-easterly from Troy, 2,500 feet above tide water, and is said to be the highest point in the state. On a fair day, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., can be plainly seen, and the inhabitants of Troy, Pa., distinguished, by the aid of the telescope.

On the summit the air is always pure and invigorating, and invalids rapidly regain health and strength. Mr. M. GUSTIN has erected a comfortable hotel where picnic parties can find shelter if it rains, and procure refreshments. A tower sixty-six feet high rises above the hotel. Mr. GUSTIN is an artist and a poet. We append one of his latest productions:

MY MOUNTAIN HOME.

O come ye Guardian Angels come
And linger 'round my Mountain Home,
And whisper words of peace;
O come with great awakening light
And erring foot-steps guide aright,
And bid all doubting cease.

Come from thy shining courts above,
Where all is joy and peace and love,
And life and light impart;
Come shed upon this lonely way,
A gleam of thy supernal day,
To cheer this faltering heart.

When sorrow's clouds obscure the light,
When morning's dawn is turned to night,
And sadness veils the sky;
Then come with wisdom's guiding ray,
And gently lead me in the way,
The way to bliss on high.

When life's poor transient day shall end,
O be thou still my guide and friend,
And homeward lead the way,
Unto joy bright and happy shore,
To join with loved ones gone before,
In realms of endless bliss.

A CARD.—A report having obtained to the effect that I made unfeeling remarks on hearing the announcement of the shooting of the President, I desire publicly to deny any intention of speaking with disrespect on the occasion, neither have I any recollection of indulging the language attributed to me. I feel as much sorrow over the melancholy event as any one, and if I have thoughtlessly said anything conveying a different impression, I sincerely regret and recall the language.
JAS. KIRWIN.

Have you noticed those handsome windows at C. F. Cross' book store? If not, go there and inspect them; then do thou likewise by decorating your transom and side lights around your front door, or a bath room window, or perhaps an office window, or in fact any glass in store, house or office that needs shading from the sun, and still receive the benefit of all the light. Many of our citizens are availing themselves of an inexpensive and handsome decoration, by using "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained Glass," for which we have the exclusive agency of Northern Pennsylvania, and a great variety of patterns on hand testify to the fact that we can please any who may favor us with calls in that line.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.
Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain,
Yours, &c.

HOMEOPATHIC

LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
