The Secretary was directed to notify Mr. Buffington to keep his carriages out of Bridge street, or to give good and sufficient bonds to keep the Borough harmless in case any accident should occur from such obstructions of said street.

By Councilman Holcomb:

In re PETTINATO.—The following statement has been volunteered by DOMENICO PETTINATO, concerning the circumstances mentioned in our issue of Monday:

I was married July 4th, 1869, at Missina in Italy. My wife's maiden name was ANNE LAMOTTA. She is a native of Milazzo. My child was born March 28, 1870. My occupation was that of book-keeper to the firm of F. O. L. BATTAGLIA DI GUISSIPPI, No. 22 Garibaldi street, Missina. I came to this country on the ship Abram Lincoln, belonging to that firm, landing in Philadelphia February 8, 1873. I sought employment at different points as book-keeper, but on account of my ignorance of the language was unable to obtain it. I learned the barber trade in New York. During my stay in this country I corresponded frequently with my wife. Came to Towanda four years ago next September. I have several times visited my wife, who lived with her relatives, father and brothers, the latter of whom are wood-carvers and cabinet makers, and live in Summit street Brooklyn. I endeavored to persuade my wife to come and live with me but she refused to do so, giving one excuse and another. The last time I visited New York was at Thanksgiving two years ago. I told my wife this was the last time I should visit her, unless she would consent to come here and live with me. She refused to do so, and declared she preferred living with her father and family. Her father was a street contractor and bridge builder in Italy, and mine was engaged in the same business. I told my wife, if she would not consent to come and live with me, I would get a divorce. I applied to two different attorneys in New York for that purpose, but their fees were more than I could pay. I wrote to New York through a prominent gentleman here at another time to another attorney, but found his fees also too high. I also wrote to Italy concerning the same thing and was informed that if I obtained a divorce, I could not marry again until my wife died. "I see this thing don't suit me so I quit entirely." I never represented myself a single man. My return from New York the last time some one asked me "where is your wife?" I answered, "I have no wife." But every body knew I had a wife; I never concealed it. I have shown the picture of my wife and child to persons in this town. What I said as above, I said in a feeling of resentment.

Last June I got a letter from my daughter, written in English. She wrote me she wanted to go back to Italy, and wanted to see me before going. I did not answer the letter. Last Wednesday I got a registered letter of the same purport. I did not answer it. On Saturday morning about 10 o'clock, I was surprised by the appearance of two of my brothers-in-law, wife and child at my barber shop. I demanded to know what was wanted, and my wife said she had come to stay with me—to stay in Towanda. I declared my willingness forthwith to be reconciled to her on the avowal of their intention, and gave my hand in honor to support and maintain her as my wife. These are the circumstances attending the whole matter.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c.
