ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Miss AVERILL, of Elmira, N. Y., is visiting her friend, Miss MAY ADAMS.

Mr. EVANS, of Athens, who represents the interests of several papers in that growing town, was in Towanda last evening.

C. E. SCOLT, who has been enjoying his summer vacation at the seashore and on Nantucket Island, arrived home this morning.

ELIAS HALE, jr., ARTHUR WELLES and LONNIE RYAN leave for Ocean Grove this morning, where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. A. J. EASTBROOKS, of the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., is spending his annual summer vacation with his wife in this place.

ROSWELL LUTHER, of Luther's Mills, who has been an invalid for several months, is at the Elwell House this morning, able to get about by the aid of crutches.

Mr. J. P. KIRBY has a field of common oats, on the Col. MASON place, which average five feet three inches high. A sample of the grain may be seen at C. T. KIRBY'S drug store.

Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL is canvassing the district embraced in the Bradford Baptist Association for subscriptions to the endowment fund of his alma mater, the Lewisburg University.

Mrs. GEO. R. R. BEAN, of Philadelphia, accompanied by her son and daughter, after a visit of two weeks with her brother-in-law, SAMUEL H. BEAN, has returned home, much benefited by the invigorating air of this locality.

D. M. GOODRICH and A. G. ELY, two very prominent young gentlemen of Owego, were attracted to this place on Sunday. They occupied the strangers' pew in Christ Church and were devout listeners to a good sermon.

Doctor BRADLEY, editor of the Wilkes-Barre Record, is at the Ward House. He visits Towanda for the purpose of making arrangements to introduce the Record in this section. The paper is the same size as the Philadelphia Times. It contains all the telegraphic news and many Pennsylvania items not found in the Elmira and Binghamton papers. In typographical appearance it is a model of neatness, while the editorial department is conducted with great ability.

The Wilkes-Barre Record copies our notice of Prof. ALBERT, and adds the following graceful compliment:

Prof. Albert, since his residence in this city, has proved himself a conscientious and able teacher, and our people will learn with regret that he intends to take his departure for other fields. The residents of the district in which he has taught looked upon him as a valued instructor, and their children made rapid progress under his guidance. His methods were thorough and lasting, and his school was among the foremost in the city in all respects. The people of Towanda are to be congratulated upon the selection their school directors have made.

During a short visit here last week the Professor made a very impression upon the minds of all who had the pleasure of meeting him.

The Order of the Iron Hall, meets in K. P. Hall, Wednesday evening.

The call for the Republican county nominating convention appears on our second page this morning, to the exclusion of other matter.

We are indebted to Mr. BRAZEE, for a copy of the Iron Hall, a new monthly paper started in Indianapolis, devoted to the interests of the Order of the Iron Hall. Persons who desire to acquaint themselves with the aims and objects of the order, should give the paper a perusal.

FIRE—About 4 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the repair shop of the Barclay Railroad Co., at the lower end of town. The alarm was sounded and the fire department promptly responded. Through their efforts the fire was confined to that building and the round house and lumber sheds saved.

We copied from the Wilkes-Barre Record the other day an item to the effect that one of our officers was likely to be prosecuted for false imprisonment, by a Wilkes-Barre man. The affair is thus explained by a paragraph in the Sunday Telegram. That paper says: "The statement is only partially true. Officer DIMMOCK, who was acting in the place of Chief of Police BURNS, then absent, boarded the Lehigh Valley train at 1 a. m., in search of a party wanted by a Wilkes-Barre Constable. CHANDLER was pointed out to the officer by the conductor as answering the description. Officer DIMMOCK took CHANDLER, who made no attempt to awake up his partner, and took him at the county jail at Towanda. He had a perfectly comfortable room and clean bed. DIMMOCK telegraphed to the constable at Wilkes-Barre, who arrived here in less than four hours after the arrest was made. CHANDLER was released as soon as the mistake was made known by the constable. He was not locked up in any station house, and could not have contracted a cold in the thoroughly ventilated rooms of our modern jail. His threats to make the officer trouble will not frighten anybody out of their senses. Of course, DIMMOCK, who is an efficient officer and a courteous gentleman, regretted the mistake and made all the reparation in his power."

THE PRESIDENT'S SYMPTOMS NOT ALARMING.

At 7:30 p. m., the following bulletin was sent by the President's attending physicians to the consulting surgeons: Shortly after our dispatch of yesterday, the President received a hypodermic injection of one eighth of a grain of morphia. He slept well during the night. To-day, however, he was not quite so comfortable as yesterday. A slight gastric disturbance was noted toward noon, in consequence of which the quantity of nourishment was temporarily diminished. This was followed by rather more afternoon fever than yesterday, but the difference was not great, and it is thought to be merely a temporary fluctuation.

At 11:30 last night, Dr. Bliss said: "There was nothing in the President's symptoms to-night to cause anxiety or indicate that he is not progressing as favorably as could be expected. The President's pulse is now 96. He is sleeping quietly."

The News Condensed.

A London dispatch announces the death of Dean Stanley.

No trace of the Kansas City train robbers has yet been discovered.

The people of Owego yesterday voted to make the river bridge at that place free.

News from Cleveland says the President's mother is better, and nothing serious is apprehended by her physician.

The New York legislature did not elect a successor to Mr Conkling yesterday but members are evidently growing tired of the contest and no doubt will end it today or to-morrow by the election of Lapham.

We are constantly receiving orders for "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained glass," and are ready to give our patrons the full benefit of an inexpensive and handsome decoration by placing it on any glass whether door or window, large size or small glass, green or white, round or square, in fact any position, shape or kind of frame or glass that needs shading from the rays of the sun, or from the gaze of inquisitive eyes. Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed since we have received the agency of this Imitation, we shall by a strict attention to business, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. To those who have heard of the "Imitation Glass," and have not seen it, we extend a cordial invitation to examine into its real merits, and ask the prices for which it can be obtained, we are prepared to contract with churches, halls, or other public buildings, and warrant all of our work to surpass in beauty the genuine stained glass and our prices are less than one-fourth the cost of the same. Those in need of anything of this kind or who are lovers of art, whether they wish to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to examine the same at CHAS. F. CROSS' Book Store.
