

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 291.

TOWANDA, PA., WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Judge JESSUP of Montrose, is stopping at the Ward House.

Mr. J. W. TAYLOR is making his friends here a short visit.

Mrs. M. J. LONG and daughter have returned from their visit to Connecticut.

Miss CORA HEATH of Athens, is visiting Mrs. Capt. R. MCKEE on Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. GEO. STEVENS and daughter Miss LOTTIE, went to Niagara yesterday.

WIRT DIMMOCK, station agent at Foot of the Plane, is visiting his parents in Towanda township.

Mrs. GEO. M. DECKER and her three little girls are visiting relatives and friends in Brooklyn, N. Y.

FRANK COVERDALE has returned from his visit to Connecticut, accompanied by a blushing young bride.

Col. JOHN A. CODDING and wife and JAS. H. CODDING, wife and son are visiting in Le Raysville to-day.

ASA W. DIMMOCK has been seriously ill for several days. We are happy to announce he was reported improving last evening.

Lawyer ANGLE has hied himself to the hills of Herrick and will take a short vacation from professional work at his parental home.

Rev. DAVID CRAFT, of the Wyalusing Presbyterian church, is having his summer vacation. He will be absent from his pulpit next sabbath and the one following.

The President's wound reminds the Towanda correspondent of the Elmira Free Press of a similar one sustained by Gen. MADILL during the war which disabled him for months and the effects of which are still manifest.

Telegrams were received yesterday announcing the alarming illness of Mrs. Dr. MONTANYE, in Waupaca, Wis., where she is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Dr. EYER. Her father and mother and little son, Master FRANK, started last evening for Wisconsin to see her. Many friends will pray for her restoration.

JOHN J. SPALDING is happy again. His good wife has returned after an absence of several weeks, during which time JOHN kept "bachelors hall." He says he got along all right until all the dishes had been used, and the beds occupied until they were as hard as a board, after that he thinks he would just as soon take up with the fare of a first class watering place hotel. But the beds have been stirred up and the china washed and put in order; hence JOHN's serene appearance.

It has been said "corporations have no souls," and circumstances often seem to confirm the charge. After seventeen years of faithful service, at a not very remunerative salary, our esteemed friend, T. M. WOODRUFF, was on Monday notified, without any previous warning, that his place would hereafter be occupied by another. We suppose the Erie railway company understand their own business, but such acts appear to the public quite heartless. TOMMY will be missed about the Barclay depot.

The railroad equity suit before Judge LINN, was resumed at the court house yesterday.

The loss to the Company by the burning of the Barclay repair shops yesterday morning is quite considerable, as the machinery and material in the building was valued at $20,000. In addition, Mr. JOHNSON, the foreman, lost $250 worth of tools. No insurance. Superintendent LYON says it is not improbable that the shop will be rebuilt at the Foot of Plane. The origin of the fire is not known.

Wyalusing is bound to keep pace with some of the modern improvements even if she can't sustain a newspaper, and telephone stock is fairly booming there. We are informed that four individual lines, owned respectively by the following named gentlemen—H. J. HALLOCK, W. H. KINTNER, H. J. LLOYD and C. L. LYWIS—have recently been put up, while a stock company has run a line to the depot, with village office at J. M. ALLIS' drug store. C. K. THOMPSON of Mehoopany has constructed all these lines.

Mrs. GARFIELD FUND.—A few gentlemen of this village met yesterday and resolved to make an organization to aid in raising the $250,000 subscription for Mrs. GARFIELD. N. N. BETTS, Esq., of the National Bank was selected as treasurer, and all subscriptions may be sent or handed to him. The movement is entirely non-partisan and all who desire to express their practical sympathy with the President's family in the sad bereavement they are passing through, are invited to contribute. The names of contributors will be printed in the REVIEW. Subscriptions to the fund may be forwarded from any part of the County. All sums received by Mr. BETTS will be sent to CYRUS W. FIELD.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.—Superintendent RYAN has about decided to hold the Institute this year the week between Christmas and New Year.

The following teachers have been employed as Principals of the below named graded schools of this county:

Towanda borough—Prof. A. D. ALBERT.
Troy borough—Prof. J. T. MCCOLLOM.
Athens borough—Prof. W. H. BENEDICT.
Canton borough—Prof. BURRITT.
East Smithfield—E. Z. WOOD.
South Waverly—J. D. HARDING.
Wyalusing, fall term—J. V. KEELER.
Rome borough—C. F. HEVERLY.
Overton—J. C. OSBORNE.

S. C. JOHNSTON has been added to the faculty of the Collegiate Institute, in place of Prof. BIGELOW. Mr. J. is a graduate of the Institute and has for the past year been a student at the Madison, N. Y., University. He is well qualified from a literary standpoint for the position, and is moreover an earnest, conscientious christian gentleman, who will exemplify and emphasize his precepts by a correct walk and conversation.

We most heartily commend the action of the Towanda school board in selecting Mr. GEORGE M. MARSHALL to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Miss PENNEPACKER. The school is so large that at least two male teachers are necessary, and one who would more acceptably fill the position than Mr. MARSHALL could hardly be found. The action of the directors will meet the entire approbation of the patrons of the school.

A new school house is being erected in the Gregory district, Athens township. JOB GRIFFIN and W. A. PLUMMER are the contractors—a guaranty of a good job.

A substantial new school building has been built the present season in the Nealy district, Litchfield.

A new school house will be put up at West Warren during the summer vacation.

THE PRESIDENT'S SYMPTOMS MUCH IMPROVED.

At 7:30 last evening the following dispatch was sent by the attending to the consulting surgeons: Last evening the President received a hypodermic injection of a grain of sulphate of morphia, and slept well during the night. He continues to take sulphate of quinia in three grain doses, thrice daily, and has enemata when required. As anticipated, the increased fever of yesterday, proved only temporary and he has had a better day today, than any since he was injured. The wound looks well and is discharging healthily pus freely.
