

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 293.

TOWANDA, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

FRANK KINGSBURY has taken a position at FITCH'S.

Miss EVA M. JOHNSON, of this place is visiting friends in Standing Stone.

Mrs. FRANK BROWN, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. KENYON, in Athens, is home again.

BOB WILLIAMS has received the official notification of his appointment to a cadetship at West Point.

G. S. ACKLEY and wife returned last evening after a sojourn of three weeks on their farm in Tuscarora.

Dr. MILLER, general agent of the Phoenix Life Insurance Co., Hartford, Ct., is in town looking after the interests of the company.

Mr. and Mrs. WHITCOMB have returned from "Camp TAYLOR," and Mrs. W. will visit her parents in Nunda, N. Y., next week.

Rev. W. C. RAYMOND, of West Franklin made us a pleasant call the other day and gave substantial evidence of his appreciation of the REVIEW, by becoming a subscriber.

A telegram yesterday announced the safe arrival at Waupaca of Mr. and Mrs. CHAMBERLIN, and contained the gratifying intelligence that they found Mrs. MONTANYE improving.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. CHAS. JOHNSON, their guests, L. A. PIERCE and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. ALLEN, spent several days trout fishing in Sullivan county this week.

Cadet ROBERT WILLIAMS is preparing for the hazing he expects to experience at West Point in September, when he dons his uniform and begins to play soldier, by rustication in Eastern Bradford.

The Rev. J. S. BEERS, of Towanda, will preach at Laporte on Sunday morning, at Thorndale Sunday evening, at Sugar Point school house, Davidson, Monday evening, and at Eaglesmere Tuesday evening.—Dushore Review.

Mr. S. W. RODGERS has resigned his position in the Canton National Bank and accepted a situation as foreman of one department of a large manufacturing establishment in Minneapolis, Minn. We regret to lose so valuable a citizen, but are glad that Mr. R. has been fortunate enough to secure a berth where his valuable services will be rewarded.

Mr. NELSON WELLES, of Elmira, LINCOLN and FISHER WELLES, of Wyalusing, accompanied by SAMUEL COLT and F. P. VINCENT of our town, started for the waters of Bowman's Creek, on Tuesday morning, fully equipped for a week's camping out. They expect to capture a quantity of trout.—Du-Shore Review.

Rev. DAVID CRAFT, who is to occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church in this city next Sunday, has for many years been pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Wyalusing, Pa., and will be remembered as having delivered the "Historical Address" at the Sullivan Centennial here two years ago. He is a man of ability and an excellent preacher. Go and hear him.—Elmira Advertiser.

Judge PATTON of Ohio, a brother of the late Gen. PATTON, is visiting his relatives, Mrs. J. J. GRIFFITHS and Hon. J. G. PATTON, in this place. The Judge has out-lived man's allotted period, but is still vigorous and active. He was assistant U. S. District Attorney during JACKSON'S administration, and subsequently for many years President Judge on the Pittsburg bench. At present he is a member of the Ohio legislature. He had not been in Towanda before in twenty-five years.

PULMAN & HAMILTON'S Circus is booked for this place early next month.

Germania Band will give another of those very enjoyable Open Air Concerts, Monday evening.

It is rumored that one of Towanda's most zealous, successful and popular preachers, has received a call to another field and it is more than surmised he has decided to accept, although no announcement to that effect has been made to the congregation.

The Barclay Junction Hotel narrowly escaped destruction the morning the machine shops burned. Some of the glass were broken by the heat and the paint was scorched but mine host CATON has everything in order again and is prepared to offer his guests the best accommodations.

MONROE PERSONALS—Misses MAMIE LUCE, EMMA LUBERS, and CORDIE PARSHALL, of Waverly, N. Y., and Misses LIZZIE OWEN, JULIA PHINNEY and JENNIE DEWERS, of Towanda, are doing the very agreeable at Miss JENNIE SMITH'S this week. Miss PARSHALL will remain some time.

Miss RUTH, daughter of Esquire ADAMS, of Mansfield, is visiting Miss JENNIE HULL this week. The conviviality of youth is the very cream of life. N. D. P.

The Canton Sentinel of last week says that "Sheriff HORTON" had been calling around among his friends in that vicinity. The Sentinel no doubt refers to Capt. W. T. HORTON, of Terrytown, who without doubt will be unanimously nominated for Sheriff by the Republicans of Bradford county this fall. We predict that if nominated, he will be elected by a larger majority than any candidate in Bradford has ever had in an off year, as it is termed. Capt. HORTON is competent for any position, of the strictest integrity, and one of the most genial, good natured men, with whom we are acquainted. The Republicans of Bradford can find no more worthy man for the position.—DuShore Review.

W. G. GORDON druggist, informs us that he carefully examined a lot of rock and black bass caught in the river the other day, and found worms in most of them. They were not deposited directly under the skin, but were found enclosed in a white sack about the size of a small pea, of tough leathery substance. The little fellows were very active when released.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLINAN'S on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

METEOROLOGICAL—The thermometer at Dr. H. C. PORTER & SON'S Drug Store, at the corner of Main and Pine streets, indicated as follows:

JULY 21.
6 a. m.—70 deg. above zero. 9 a. m.—75; 12 m.—78; 3 p. m.—81; 6 p. m.—78; 9 p. m.—71.
Average temperature during the day—75.

JULY 22.
6 a. m. 60—degs. above zero.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY—Fair, followed by increasing cloudiness; possibly local rains; northerly winds, becoming variable; rising followed by falling barometer; stationary or higher temperature.

THE PRESIDENT STEADILY IMPROVING.

7 p. m., official bulletin: The President has had another good day. At 1 p. m. his pulse was 92, temperature 98.4, respiration 19. At 7 p. m. his pulse is 96, temperature 99.9, respiration 19.

The following dispatch was sent at 7:30 last evening by the attending to the consulting surgeons: "Since our telegram of yesterday the President has continued to do well. He passed a comfortable night and this morning a morsel of clothing about a quarter of an inch square came away spontaneously with the pus from the deeper part of the wound. It proved, on examination, to consist chiefly of cotton fibers with a few woolen fibers adhering. The medication is continued without change."

The News Condensed.

Sitting Bull and two hundred of his followers have surrendered.

The Stalwarts have bound themselves by oath to stand by Conkling for ten days yet.

Lord Colin Campbell was yesterday married to Miss Gertrude Blood, in London.

Seventy-five liquor dealers have been arrested in Wilkes-Barre for selling on Sunday.

The Butler syndicate, which had an expert examining the Sprague estate for some time, made an offer of $2,347,000 for the entire property, a little less than thirty per cent of the indebtedness. The proposition was not accepted.

The amount paid at Gloucester, Mass., by the commissioner of the State Department on Monday as reimbursement for the Fortune Bay losses in 1878 was between $50,000 and $60,000. Claims were presented by twenty-two Gloucester vessels.

Articles of consolidation were filed in Harrisburg on Wednesday last between the New York, Pittsburg and Chicago railway companies of Ohio and Pennsylvania, and the Pittsburg and Chicago railway which is now in progress of construction. The new corporation will be known as the New York, Pittsburg and Chicago Railway Company. Its capital is seven millions.

The Boston Advertiser says: "The reports of the approaching marriage of Lord Colin Campbell, son of the Duke of Argyll, and a daughter of the American adventuress, Victoria Woodhull, are wholly erroneous. The lady to whom Lord Campbell is to be married is a daughter of Mr. Edward Blood, a gentleman of large wealth and high standing in English society."

A subscription was started at the Atlantic City Review office Wednesday for the purpose of purchasing a cottage for President Garfield. Five hundred dollars were at once subscribed by a prominent Philadelphian, who desires his name withheld, but who promises $500 more as soon as $10,000 are subscribed.

The fireworks, including the President's picture, will take place in front of the United States Hotel on Saturday night. Ten thousand visitors arrived Wednesday.

We are constantly receiving orders for "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained glass," and are ready to give our patrons the full benefit of an inexpensive and handsome decoration by placing it on any glass whether door or window, large size or small glass, green or white, round or square, in fact any position, shape or kind of frame or glass that needs shading from the rays of the sun, or from the gaze of inquisitive eyes. Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed since we have received the agency of this Imitation, we shall by a strict attention to business, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. To those who have heard of the "Imitation Glass," and have not seen it, we extend a cordial invitation to examine into its real merits, and ask the prices for which it can be obtained, we are prepared to contract with churches, halls, or other public buildings, and warrant all of our work to surpass in beauty the genuine stained glass and our prices are less than one-fourth the cost of the same. Those in need of anything of this kind or who are lovers of art, whether they wish to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to examine the same at CHAS. F. CROSS' Book Store.
