Republican County Convention.

Pursuant to a resolution passed by the Republican County Committee in session Friday June 24, 1881, the Convention of the Republican party for 1881 will convene at the COURT HOUSE in TOWANDA BOROUGH on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, at ONE O'CLOCK, P. M., to make the following nominations for county officers, to wit:

One person for Sheriff.
One person for Prothonotary, &c.
One person for Register and Recorder, &c.
One person for Treasurer.
Two persons for County Commissioners.
Two persons for County Auditors.

And for the transaction of any other business that may come before the convention.

The Committees of Vigilance of the several election districts will call primary meetings at the usual places of holding Delegate elections for their respective districts, for SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3D., 1881, to elect by BALLOT two delegates to represent each district in said county convention.

The delegate elections in the BOROUGHS will be organized at SIX O'CLOCK, P. M., and be kept open continuously, to close at 8 o'clock, p. m. In the districts of Barclay, North Towanda and Athens District No. 3, from FIVE O'CLOCK, P. M., continuously until 7 o'clock p. m., at which time they shall close. And in all other townships from THREE o'clock, p. m., continuously until FIVE o'clock, p. m., at which time they shall close. The votes shall then be counted and the result certified by the proper officers of said meetings to the Chairman of said Convention and a copy delivered at once to the delegates elect.

The Committees of Vigilance are particularly requested to give at least three weeks' written or printed notice of the said primary elections, and to carefully observe the above rules in conducting the said primary meetings.

Only Republicans can participate in said meetings.

E. J. ANGLE, Chairman
J. M. ELY, Republican County Committee Secretary.

RUM!

A celebrated western lawyer in an address to a jury during a liquor case trial, drew the following vivid, appalling, but truthful picture of rum and its devilish work:

"I believe that it issues from the coiled and poisonous worm in the distillery until it empties into the hell of death, dishonor and crime, that it demoralizes every body that touches it, from its source to where it ends. I do not believe that anybody can contemplate the subject without becoming prejudiced against liquor. Think of the wrecks on either bank of the stream of death; of the suicides, of the insanity, of the poverty, of the ignorance, of the destitution, of the little children tugging at the faded and weary breasts of weeping and despairing wives, as king for bread; of the talented men of genius that it has wrecked, the men struggling with imaginary serpents, produced by the devilish thing; and when you think of the jails, of the almshouses, asylums, prisons, scaffolds upon either, I do not wonder that every thoughtful man is prejudiced against this damned stuff called alcohol.

"Intemperance cuts down youth in its vigor, manhood in its strength, and age in its weakness. It breaks the father's heart, bereaves the devoted mother, extinguishes natural affections, erases conjugal loves, blots out filial attachment, blights parental hope and brings down mourning age in sorrow to the grave. It produces weakness, not strength; sickness; not health; death, not life. It makes wives, widows; children, orphans; fathers, fiends; and all of them paupers and beggars. It feeds rheumatism, nurses gout, welcomes epidemics, invites cholera, imparts pestilence and embraces consumption. It covers the land with illness, misery and crime. It fills your jails, supplies your almshouses and demands your asylums.

"It engenders controversies, fosters quarrels and cherishes riots. It crowds your penitentiaries and furnishes victims to your scaffolds. It is the life blood of the gambler, the prop of the highwayman and the support of the midnight incendiary. It countenances a liar, respects the thief, esteems the blasphemer, and honors infamy. It defames benevolence, hates love, scorns virtue and slanders innocence. It incites the father to butcher his helpless offspring, helps the husband to massacre his wife and the children to grind the parricidal axe. It burns up men, consumes women, detests life, curses God and despises Heaven.

Tuesday's Press gave a rumor as being current in Philadelphia to the effect that the Lehigh Valley RR. was to be leased to the Pennsylvania RR. This same rumor has been current many times before, and whether the present is any more likely to become a fact than the rumors which have preceded it is of course not now to be seen. The Valley is a dividend paying road, and it would be advantageous to the Pennsylvania to control it for this reason. Another and more important advantage of its location through and adjacent to coal property in which the Pennsylvania is largely interested, and some of the lines the latter at present controls connect with it, for instance the Sunbury, Hazleton and Wilksbarre in this vicinity and their lines to New York, and also to the West, which would give enlarged control of a kind of traffic—coal—which is eagerly coveted. It is assumed that in case the Pennsylvania, should get control of the Lehigh Valley the official management would continue the same or nearly so as now, while the policy would undergo such changes as would conform to the admirable system of the Pennsylvania, which is everywhere noted as having attained to perfection in railroading. The transfer would be a gigantic transaction and we in common with all our business people would be glad to see it accomplished.—Hazleton Sentinel.

The Indians at Newajo reservation threaten trouble unless the agent, Galen Eastman, a Presbyterian minister is removed. Some time ago, by ill advised acts, Eastman so excited the Indians that they threatened to kill him. Eastman was superseded by an army officer but was recently re-instated. It is reported that his first move was to endeavor to make the Indians go to church and stop using tobacco. They number 6,000 bucks.
