GENERAL ORDER No. 7.

The Legislature at its last session passed a further supplement to the Military Code of Pennsylvania, which has been promulgated by General Orders No. 9, from Headquarters National Guard of Pennsylvania.

The following are among the provisions of the said Act, approved June 8th, 1881:

I. That there shall be held once in every year an encampment of the National Guard, not to exceed eight days duration at such time and place as the Commander in Chief shall direct; the annual inspection by the Adjutant General, shall be made during said encampment; the troops shall be entitled to transportation, and subsistence, and be paid for five days only, as follows: 1st. Sergeants, $3 00; Sergeants, $2 00; Corporals $1 75; musicians and privates, $1 50 per day. Companies shall be inspected during the month of April or May, of each year, at their company rendezvous, for which no pay is allowed.

2. Sections 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15, of said Act, reads as follows:

That any soldier failing to appear upon any occasion of duty to which he shall be ordered, by his proper commanding officer shall be subject to trial by such Court Martial as the Brigade Commander may direct, and upon conviction, failing to render good and sufficient cause therefor, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding twenty five dollars, or upon his failure to pay such fine within twenty days, to a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, as such Court Martial may direct.

SECTION 9. That when the fines or dues imposed by the Company By-Laws, shall amount in the aggregate to five dollars, the person delinquent may be prosecuted before a regimental or battalion Court Martial, and upon his conviction or failure to present a satisfactory excuse, he shall be sentenced to pay the same, or on his failure so to do, within twenty days after such sentence, to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding five days.

SECTION 10. Every arm, uniform and equipment issued by the State, shall be used only in the discharge of military duty, and any non-commissioned officer or private, who shall willfully or wantonly, injure or destroy any uniform, arm, equipment or other property belonging to the State, or the regiment or battalion, or company, and refuse to make good such injury or loss, or who shall sell, dispose of, secrete or remove the same with intent to sell or dispose thereof or who shall fail within six days after being notified to return the same to the State or commanding officer, shall be tried by Court Martial, and sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or undergo an imprisonment in the county jail of not more than sixty days, and all clothing, camp and garrison equipments, ordnance, ordnance stores and quartermaster stores issued by the State or fabricated from material issued by the State, and charged against the company allowance, or for which commutation has been paid, shall be the property of the State of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 11. If any person shall knowingly and willfully purchase or receive in pawn or pledge, any arm, accoutrement, article of military clothing, or equipment, tent or fly or any quartermaster or ordnance store, the property of the State of Pennsylvania, he shall be guilty of misdemeanor and being convicted thereof in any Court of Quarter Sessions of the proper counties, shall be sentenced to an imprisonment not exceeding one year and a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

SECTION 12. The publication according to military usage of the printed or written orders, from or through regiment or battalion headquarters, by the company commander, or prescribed in the by-laws, announcing the duty to be performed, shall be sufficient warning to the officer or soldier directed to perform such duty.

SECTION 13. That military duty shall require the attendance of commissioned officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates on all occasions of drills, parades, encampments and active service ordered by the commanding officer of the company, regiment, battalion, brigade, division of the commander-in-chief or provided for by the company by-laws, unless excused therefrom by the officer having authority to grant such excuses; any that while on such duty, or going to or returning from the same, obedienc shall be rendered to all rules, regulations usages, customs and requirements of the army of the United States and of the code and regulations of the State of Pennsylvania.

SECTION 14. All fines and penalties imposed and collected through the sentence of court-martial shall be paid to the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

SECTION 15. That the keepers and wardens of all county jails are required to receive and confine all military offenders when delivered under the proper certificate of commitment of general or regimental court-martial or a field officer's court.

II. Attendance at drills, parades, encampments and such duty as is required by company by-laws is now demanded of all who are members of the National Guard, and those who do not render such service will be dealt with as provided in above sections.

III. For the benefit of the command, it is announced that the Annual Encampment for 1881 will probably be held at Wilkes Barre or Danville and continue for about seven days between the 19th and 25th of August. All members of the company should make the necessary and proper arrangements to be able to render such service, since none can now be excused unless for sickness. The captain is required to account for all men on the rolls under oath and all men not present at the coming encampment and inspection, will be reported absent without leave, unless excused on account of sickness or absence from the State.

IV. Each man in the company shares in the credit of receiving a good report for the company at the next inspection and the commander therefore urges the attendance at all regular and special drills in order that the company may equal if not excel in drill and discipline, any company in the Guard.

V. All the members of the company will be required to attend rifle practice during the season, and if not in attendance on the regular days appointed for practice, will be required to attend at such special practice as may be fixed hereafter.

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:

My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c.
A. C. WOODRUFF.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—R. S. Thurber has provided himself with a suitable "rig" and is now prepared to deliver all kinds of packages, goods, trunks, &c., on the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. Orders left at Stevens & Long's and Dye & Co's will receive prompt attention.
