Miss KATIE SULLIVAN has gone to Barclay for a visit of two weeks with her parents.

The reports from Mrs. Dr. MONTANYE are not encouraging. Her parents found her alarmingly ill.

Prof. BABCOCK goes to Standing Stone this morning to spend the day "in camp" with his son's family.

J. B. STARK and FRANK DECKER were out fishing yesterday and brought in a fine lot, the largest bass weighing two and a-half lbs.

FRED CARNOCHAN and his grandmother, Mrs. Dr. PARSONS, drove over from Troy yesterday and are at Mrs. CARNOCHAN'S on Chestnut street.

BEN BALL of Litchfield had two fingers injured by a pistol shot Sunday night or Monday morning. He said it was the result of an accident. Dr. ALLEN dressed the wound.

Mr. JOHN TURNER, an employe in Frosts factory, met with a painful accident Saturday. While running a "jointer," the index finger of his right hand was caught and completely amputated at the second joint.

JOHN SULLIVAN, a trackman employed by the P. & N. Y. R. Co., met with a singular experience on Saturday. Workmen were employed repairing the telegraph line at the east end of the railroad bridge, when one of the detached wires escaped and coiling itself around Mr. SULLIVAN'S body lifted him from the ground and carried him about fifty feet, landing him nearly in the river. Although badly frightened, he luckily escaped serious injury.

Hon. C. V. ELLIOTT and son, of Mansfield, are in town. The Doctor was born in this county and lived here until sixteen years of age, but his last previous visit here was nearly thirty-five years ago. He will drive over to Rome to-day to look over the scenes of his early life. Doctor ELLIOTT is one of the most prominent men in the Northern Tier and for four years represented Tioga county in the legislature. We enjoyed a very pleasant visit with him last evening and found him just as genial and warm-hearted as ever.

WM. DITTRICH and wife and a nephew and two nieces were visiting their relatives, the DELPUCHES on Sunday, and when they started for home the horse ran away, upsetting the wagon and quite painfully injuring Mrs. DITTRICH. One of the little girls also sustained a slight cut. The others were not hurt. We are gratified to learn that Mrs. DITTRICH'S injuries are not considered serious and she was brought home yesterday. The escape of the whole party with their lives and without broken limbs, was providential, as they together with the horse and wagon were thrown from a bridge to the bed of the Hornbrook creek.

"Misfortunes never come singly." Mr. A. H. KINGSBURY, wife and little son were visiting in Wyalusing on Saturday, and were riding in a carriage with Mrs. Dr. BROWN of Ithaca and Mrs. J. M. BROWN of Wyalusing when the horses became frightened and as the driver was unable to control them, ran throwing the occupants out and demolishing the carriage. Mrs. KINGSBURY had one of the small bones of her ankle broken and Mrs. J. M. BROWN was quite seriously injured. The others fortunately escaped unhurt. Mrs. K. will be compelled to remain in Wyalusing until she recovers from the accident.

On Friday Mr. KINGSBURY'S son JERRE, who is employed in the LaFrance engine shops, Elmira, had two of his fingers badly injured. He is unable to work and has come home to stay until the wound is healed.

The mysterious knockings at Mr. PHINNEY'S house emanated from a perverse servant girl who had been up to the same tricks in other families where she had been employed.

The Annual Pic Nic of the Presbyterian Sunday School will take place on Thursday next, the 28th inst. Cars will leave at sharp 10 o'clock a. m., for Eilenberger's Fish Ponds, from the Public Square Depot. Teachers and Scholars will pay no fare. For others the fare for the round trip will be Thirty Cents. The Parents of the Children and All Others connected with the Congregation of the Church are cordially invited to join the Excursion.

Our watchful Athens correspondent sends us the following:—Monday morning ADNA KINGSLEY, a resident of Smithfield, 72 years of age, was caught by a freight train just this side of the Athens bridge and carried upon the cow-catcher of the engine to Green's Landing before he was discovered. He had several bad bruises on his body and one bone of his right leg broken near the ankle. The train men carried him into HIRAM FARNSWORTH'S where he was made comfortable, and Dr. ALLEN summoned to attend the injuries. His friends soon afterward moved him to his home. The old gentleman is entirely dead. He had been visiting friends in Sayre and contrary to advice took the railroad track on his return. He held his cane and hat with a firm grasp and remembered passing the tannery, but said he was pretty nearly tired out holding to the engine.

TRAGIC ENDING OF A DRUNKEN QUARREL—On Saturday CHAS. A. DUTTON, of Litchfield, who had been employed in Wilnot at bark-peeling, met his death in a very singular and melancholy manner. A number of the boys of the camp had been at Wyalusing indulging freely in liquor during the day. Toward night they started back in a bark rigging, but had proceeded only about four miles when a quarrel arose between DUTTON and another of the men named RANDOLPH, in which the former was the aggressor. They had a clinch in which DUTTON was struck several times in the face, and when RANDOLPH released his hold DUTTON dropped to the ground dead. Dr. HOMER, held an inquest Sunday, and the jury returned a verdict that death was caused by "cerebral apoplexy, brought on by drinking and excitement, in attempting to fight one RANDOLPH." No arrest was made. The remains were taken to Litchfield for burial.

PARK CONCERT.—Regardless of cloudy skies and light rains, our noble Germania Band fulfilled its announced programme last night. Although basso STULEN, and others were unfortunately absent, the entire musical performance was excellent. No. 1, the CHAS. H. SEBLEY March, composed by Mr. BASTERT, of Philadelphia, and presented in manuscript to and named after our down town popular hotel keeper, is a w. l. harmonized, finely constructed and pleasing movement, a march which will wear. No. 2, by OFFENBACK was the gem. No. 3, Comet Polka was good; the trilling of WALLACE KEELER'S clarinet was typical of the glimmering of the waning comet. In three numbers, rich runs were given to the baritone, Mr. KINGSBURY, and he did them full justice. In the last number were fine unisons between baritone and B flat trombone, most effectively played by Mr. FRED CYRMON. Mastro, WALKER and Mr. FRED SMITH gave no noticeable solos. The children, to their great credit, ranged themselves like two rows of pins, north and south of the pagoda, and were respectfully quiet.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

The reunion of Garfield's old regiment set for Saturday, was postponed to August 31st.

The President.

The reports from the President were much more encouraging yesterday. The chills and fever did not return and the doctors think the danger from the abscess which necessitated the operation on Sunday has passed. We have no news this morning but the latest telegrams last evening reported him much better.
