

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 298.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

J. S. TOME of Jersey Shore, attended the Bridge Co. meeting yesterday.

Miss MARY EDWARDS, of Bath, N. Y., is visiting O. L. DELANO's family.

Mrs. Colonel CHAS MERCUR and children, of Port Jervis, N. Y., are visiting friends in this place.

JOHN CULVER, of WHITCOMB'S book store, will enjoy a vacation for the next few weeks with friends in Salem, Mass.

JOHN PHELAN, of the Ward House, joins an excursion party from Elmira who visit Hammondsport to-day.

The reports from Mrs. Dr. MONTANYE were much more favorable yesterday and her early restoration is anticipated.

Mr. HARPER and Mr. ROBBINS, two young gentlemen of Philadelphia, are visiting at Hon. E. R. MYER'S in Myersburg.

JOHN NORTHROP, a young man who was for several years employed on the Barclay railroad, has gone west and secured a position on a road at Leadville, Colorado.

Mr. LEWIS, President of the Long Valley Coal Co., accompanied by his wife and several other ladies, has been spending a few days here. The party left yesterday afternoon.

We return thanks to our old friend and former townsman, PAT PHELAN, for late copies of Topeka, Kansas, papers, containing interesting discussions of the new liquor law.

Col. SMITH informs us that he has decided to open an office in Scranton and will spend most of his time there, but will be in Towanda during court weeks. We congratulate the bar of Lackawanna county on the valuable accession to their ranks.

MATTHEW A. GAMBEL, who was principal assistant chief engineer on the N. B. Canal, under Mr. FOSTER, some forty years ago, was registered at the Ward House yesterday. It is thirty-five years since he was here before.

JOHN BLACK of LeRaysville exhibited to us a unique present which his son-in-law, Mr. STERN, of New York, purchased for him in Europe. At first sight it appears like a neat reception chair, and it is, but a musical instrument as well, and when you take a seat in it discourses exquisite music.

Mr. S. W. RODGERS, after remaining in Minneapolis a few weeks decided that he was too old "to grow up with the country" successfully, and he relinquished a good situation, shook "the dust of the city" from his feet and turned his face toward his native heath. He has again taken up his residence in Towanda and will engage in business here. Himself and family will be warmly welcomed back.

She was a little girl and wanted so much to go to the pic nic. The clouds obscured the sky, but she stood on the piazza watching, and pointing out one small blue spot in the north-east, she exclaimed confidently, "Papa, it's clearing away!"

We are pained at the intelligence of the death, of SYLVESTER W. ALDEN, Esq., of Green Bay, Wis. He was a twin brother of Elder S. W. ALDEN of Monroeton, and died on the 13th inst., after an illness of some two years duration. He leaves a wife and one son. He had not been east in twenty years.

Col. R. A. PACKER receives the official bulletins announcing the condition of the President, as soon as they are posted in Washington, and has very kindly directed his operator in Sayre to repeat them for Towanda, and the morning and afternoon bulletins will be printed on slips at this office.

The Pic Nic of Christ Church yesterday was a thorough success. The morning was somewhat threatening, but the prophecies of the weather were encouraging, and at 9 the signal-bell rang and said "Go!" The cars provided were well filled, and after a pleasant ride to Weston's, the pick nickers were surprised by the announcement that there had been no rain there for several days, the recent showers in Towanda not having reached that suburban locality. So the ground was "dry as a bone." The company soon scattered themselves over the extensive grounds, around the tables, in the swings, by (and in) the creek, and on the hills. Clouds appearing, hurried the lunch, but the party were ready for it. Bulletins foretold the weather with singular accuracy and the party enjoyed entire immunity from the showers which were falling around them miles away—in this place and elsewhere. At a quarter past six, the train left for home, and then came the rain—but the pic-nickers laughed at it from the close cars or from under umbrellas. All got safely home and felt that they had enjoyed a pleasant day. May to-day's company be as fortunate.

The President.

The President appears to be making steady progress toward recovery. The bulletins of yesterday will be read with devout thankfulness. The whole country is earnestly praying that the hopes these dispatches inspire may be realized speedily.

OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

The 7 p. m., official bulletin is as follows: The President is still resting quietly. He has been able to take more nourishment to-day than for several days past, and up to the present hour has had no febrile rise of temperature. His wound has just been dressed. It looks well and has continued to discharge healthy pus in sufficient quantity during the day. His pulse is now 96, temperature 98.5, respiration 20.

At 11 p. m., Secretary Blaine sent Minister Lowell the following disbtch: The President's physiciads give a most favorable account of his condition. There is a conspicuous improvement in his digestion and in the restfulness of his sleep. We are by no means relieved from anxiety, but are growing more hopeful.

We are constantly receiving orders for "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained glass," and are ready to give our patrons the full benefit of an inexpensive and handsome decoration by placing it on any glass whether door or window, large size or small glass, green or white, round or square, in fact any position, shape or kind-of frame or glass that needs shading from the rays of the sun, or from the gaze of inquisitive eyes. Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed since we have received the agency of this Imitation, we shall by a strict attention to business, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. To those who have heard of the "Imitation Glass," and have not seen it, we extend a cordial invitation to examine into its real merits, and ask the prices for which it can be obtained, we are prepared to contract with churches, halls, or other public buildings, and warrant all of our work to surpass in beauty the genuine stained glass and our prices are less than one-fourth the cost of the same. Those in need of anything of this kind or who are lovers of art, whether they wish to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to examine the same at CHAS. F. CROSS' Book Store.
