Our good friend FRANK M. BAKER, accompanied by Dr. HEATON, of Owego, was in Towanda yesterday and honored the REVIEW office with a call. The gentlemen were here on business connected with a mutual aid society. We don't know anything about the company, but the fact that Mr. BAKER is interested in it, is evidence of its soundness.

Mr. CHARLES MURRAY, of South Bend, Ind., was in Towanda yesterday. He is an old newspaper man, having been connected with the press of Ohio and Indiana for nearly fifty years past, and has been associated in journalistic work with such able gentlemen as COLFAX, DEFREES and others. He is a native of Athens, this county, and commenced the printing business in this place about 1828, with his brother-in-law, Mr. JENKINS, and the next year went west with him. Until the present visit he has not been in the county for fifty-three years, and finds very few people whom he remembers. He made us a very pleasant call.

It required a train of six cars to carry the Presbyterian picnic to the Trout ponds at Laddsburg yesterday. A day of unalloyed pleasure was enjoyed by all who participated.

Miss MINNIE HOWES, a lady well known and highly esteemed in this place, where she lived for several years, died on the 11th inst., of consumption. The announcement will be read with real sorrow by a large circle of devoted friends in this county.

On complaint of GEO. BRUCE a warrant was issued yesterday afternoon for the arrest of the irrepressible SAM BERRY.—The charge was threatening to take the life of the complainant. In default of $500 bail, Justice CODDING committed him to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. MARTIN, an aged lady, who had been infirm for a number of years, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. SMITH, on York Avenue yesterday morning. Funeral services will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The remains will be taken to Olean, N. Y., the former home of the deceased, for burial.

A large concourse of people assembled yesterday afternoon to join in paying the last sad tribute of respect to the mortal remains of the late Wm. Mix. Rev. J. S. BEERS read the impressive burial service of the Episcopal Church. Mr. E. T. FOX directed the arrangements and the following gentlemen officiated as pall-bearers: Colonel SMITH, Hon. JOS. POWELL, JAS. MACFARLANE, JAS. McCABE, Judge RUSSELL, C. P. SPALDING, GEORGE STRYENS and Wm. DITTRICH.
