TOWANDA, PA., SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Miss MYRA SHAW, who has been visiting friends in this place, has returned to her home in Waverly, N. Y.

Mrs. ORIN W. DELANO, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting her uncles, O. L. and T. C. DELANO, in this place.

Miss ALICE DELANO has returned from Detroit, Mich., after a visit of three months, with health fully restored.

E. T. NOBLE and wife and JOHN NOBLE, who have been visiting in Lock Haven for the past two weeks, returned yesterday.

The schools of Misses IDA BEDFORD and SARAH SHERWOOD, at Barclay, having closed they returned to their homes last evening.

Miss MINNIE McMASTER, of Toronto, Ont., is spending the summer with her cousins, the Misses McINTOSH, at their pleasant home on York avenue.

We were gratified to see Col. MASON out riding yesterday, and hope he may soon be able to attend to business and be seen upon the street as oforetime.

Mrs. GEORGE MORSE, who has been spending several months with her mother, Mrs. McINTOSH, in this place, returned to her home in Rochester, on Monday.

Mrs. J. D. and Mrs. JOHN MONTANYE have returned from Slaterville Springs. The latter is confident her short visit there has afforded her great relief from rheumatism from which she has suffered much of late.

Col. R. LUTHER, of Luther's Mills, and Mr. T. P. PATCH, who have been sojourning at Slaterville for a short time are home. Both gentlemen express themselves as much pleased with the place and believe they have experienced great benefit.

BENNIE WATERS, who was employed for some time in the furniture store of FROST'S Sons, is now filling a similar situation in the city of Bradford. We are gratified to hear of his good luck, as BEN is a reliable, trusty young man and will win success.

Maj. C. F. Cross has been tendered the general agency of the Owego Mutual Benefit Association of which F. M. BAKER is President. The officers of the Association are all well known, responsible gentlemen, and if Mr. Cross accepts the position they have tendered him, that branch of the business will be entrusted to good hands.

Twenty-five years ago to-day W. H. PERKINS, Esq., and Miss MARY BRITTON were married in this place, and to-night they will celebrate their silver wedding at their pleasant home in Scranton, where they have resided ever since their happy marriages. Although a full quarter century has elapsed since they left us, many friends in Towanda will join in heartily extending congratulations, coupled with the unfeigned wish that Mr and Mrs. PERKINS may be spared to enjoy many more years of happiness. Mr. P. is one of the most conspicuous business men in the city of Scranton, and has for the past fifteen years filled the responsible position of treasurer of the Dickson Iron Co.

At the invitation of LUCIUS P. MALLORY, Esq., a party consisting of Misses ALICE and LILLIE McINTOSH, Miss MINNIE McMASTER, Miss ELISE MERCUR, Miss FANNY ALVORD, HIRAM MERCUR, editor of the Mercury, and "Ye Junior," made a pleasant visit to Fall Creek, yesterday. At Mr. MALLORY'S suggestion, Superintendent LYON kindly extended the "freedom of the road," to the entire party. LUCIUS did everything in his power that would add to the pleasure of his guests. After picnicking near to mouth of the mine, those of the party who desired to went into the mine. The ride in a mine coal car drawn by TOM COYLE'S fine mule, "Tom," on the narrow gauge railroad, was one of the pleasantest features of the day. All returned in the evening feeling themselves under many obligations to L. P. MAL-

LORY for one of the best days they ever enjoyed, and all voted LUCIUS "a prince of good fellows."

Postmaster POWELL has handed us the following, sent him from Bradford. The document explains itself:

DEAR SIR:—I just had a soldier's discharge handed to me which was picked up in Elmira, N. Y. It reads: "Samuel S. Cook. Enlisted Aug. 21, 1864, for three years. Co L, 10th Reg. N. Y. Cavalry. Capt. —, Col. —. Discharged Aug. 7, 1865, at Elmira, N. Y., by general order No. 77. Born in Bradford Co. Pa. 37 years of age; 5 feet 8 inches; complexion light; eyes dark; hair brown; occupation, shoemaker."

This certificate of discharge may be valuable to secure a pension, or he or his heirs is entitled to a bounty of $100.

Suppose you hand this to a printer of your place. I will deliver the certificate to the owner and will aid in getting the bounty if he desires it. O. H. WHEELER, Att'y.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

The President's Condition.

OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

JULY 29, 8:30 A. M.

President rested well this morning. Looks well. No rigor or febrile. Pulse 92; Temperature and respiration normal. 1:30 P. M.

The appearance of the wound, the character and quantity of the discharge and the general condition of the President are satisfactory. He rests well and takes an adequate quantity of nourishment. Pulse 98; temperature 98-4; respiration 19.

7:00 P. M.

The President has been comfortable and cheerful during the day and had quite a nap since the noon bulletin was issued. The afternoon febrile rise came on later and was not so marked as yesterday.—The wound has been discharging freely and looks well. At present his pulse is 98, temperature 100, respiration 20.

At 11 last night the President was reported free from fever and sleeping.

The News Condensed.

John J. Bagly, ex-Governor of Michigan died in San Francisco on Wednesday.

A farmer named Wilson while passing through a bush unarmed near Kingston, Ont., was attacked by a bear, torn to pieces and almost eaten.

Bishop Philip K. Smith, once of high standing and influence in the Mormon church, and exposé of the Mountain Meadow massacre in which he participated, has been found dead in Prospect Hole in Senora, Mexico. The circumstances indicate murder. Smith, after convicting John D. Lee of the Mountain Meadow massacre, said, "I know the Church will kill me sooner or later. It is only a question of time." After the trial, by order of the Church, his wife left him, and he went to Arizona where two attempts were made to kill him.

We are constantly receiving orders for "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained glass," and are ready to give our patrons the full benefit of an inexpensive and handsome decoration by placing it on any glass whether door or window, large size or small glass, green or white, round or square, in fact any position, shape or kind of frame or glass that needs shading from the rays of the sun, or from the gaze of inquisitive eyes. Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed since we have received the agency of this Imitation, we shall by a strict attention to business, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. To those who have heard of the "Imitation Glass," and have not seen it, we extend a cordial invitation to examine into its real merits, and ask the prices for which it can be obtained, we are prepared to contract with churches, halls, or other public buildings, and warrant all of our work to surpass in beauty the genuine stained glass and our prices are less than one-fourth the cost of the same. Those in need of anything of this kind or who are lovers of art, whether they wish to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to examine the same at CHAS. F. CROSS' Book Store.
