Two of our most highly esteemed young ladies, who were in attendance at the picnic at Westons, on Wednesday were caught behind an umbrella, smoking cigarettes. A third young lady to whom they offered one, refused to smoke it.

ARGUMENTUM APOSTORIUM.—Just as Rev. Armstrong and his lady, were, this morning starting for their new field of labor; they dispatched their amiable daughter Ruth to the grotto, supplying us with a rich variety and quantity of garden sauce, accompanied by the compliments of Mrs. Armstrong. Thanks for the vegetables, and thanks for the compliments accompanying them. We own defeat. Accept the situation. Can't meet such arguments. We take back all of our mischief, and he goes away victorious. "Peace be within thy borders and prosperity be within thy palaces." We always told you that Brother Armstrong was a good neighbor. N.D.P. Monroeton, July 23d 1881.

A little three year old "hopeful" here about was required by his mother, to try the virtue of some medicine each morning before breakfast, as a remedy for some of his numerous ailments. For one or two mornings she succeeded by a little judicious flattery in persuading him to take it without the usual concomitant of holding his hands, throwing him on his back and forcing it down him. This sweet persuasion consisted in calling the other members of the family and especially patrefamilias to "see what a Major he was." When the bottle was brought around the third morning, he eyed the preparation attentively for a while and then very sagely remarked: "Mamma let 'Dode' (his little sister a year or two older than than himself) be major this morning, I'm tired."

All honorably-discharged soldiers and sailors of the late war are invited to participate in the reunion to be held at this village on the 15th and 16th of September next. The gathering is intended to be a grand fraternal meeting of the veterans of the war, so that they may enjoy a season of social intercourse and renew the memories of their battles and the hardships and dangers shared together. The camp fires will burn brightly, the old stories will be re-told and the battles will be fought over again. The committee have assurances already from Lycoming, Bradford, Potter, Center and other counties that their several delegations will be large. Ample provision will be made to accommodate all who may come, and it is expected that the railroad fares will be largely reduced.—Wellsborough Agitator.

An exchange says:—This is the time when we like to call the attention of farmers and gardeners to the work of budding their fruit trees. Those who were too much hurried in their spring work to attend to it in April and May can now make up for lost time by resorting to this mode of increasing the variety and amount of the orchard product. Budding can now be done, and continue through the first part of August. It is not as difficult as grafting, but like the latter it must be understood just how it is to be done, though this is easy to do, by giving a little attention how others do it. To cut a bud from the parent branch, it should take about an inch and a half of the bark and a thin slice of the wood for three-fourths of the length of the bark, the bud being about in the centre; and in setting it cut a slit in the bark of the tree only, say two inches in length, and at the top make a cut across the slit; then carefully raise the bark up with the knife and insert in it the bud. Do it as neatly as possible. Then wrap around the entire slit and up to the bud bass matting, using strips about a foot long and half an inch in width, and tie in a knot. Of course the branch or stock in which the bud is set remains just as it was before, no topping or cutting off.

The budding of peach trees is best deferred until August, and is always adopted instead of grafting, which is not recommended for this fruit.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:

My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.
