W. H. DODGE and family will occupy J. O. FROST'S residence during the absence in the South of Mr. and Mrs. FROST.

T. M. ARNOT, LEGRAND BREWER and WILLIE LAYTON go into camp for a week near York's narrows this morning.

Mrs. A. H. KINGSBURY, who was injured in an accident at Wyalusing a week ago Saturday has been brought home, but will not be able to stand on her foot for some weeks yet.

Mrs. DITTRICH'S injuries by the runaway a week ago were much more serious than at first supposed. She has scarcely been able to move a limb since, but is getting better now.

Mr. DAILY, the Macedonian market gardener, has our thanks for a bountiful supply of perfectly formed petite pears, of excellent flavor. The fruit is especially suitable for spicing.

A number of the attorneys engaged in the railroad equity suit accepted an invitation from Col. PACKER to spend Saturday night on Cayuga Lake. Senator DAVIES was one of the party.

A. J. WHITNEY, wife and three children of Tyrone, are spending a few weeks at Mr. W's old home in Wysox. He has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania rail road company for 23 years.

We congratulate R. C. SINSABAUGH, Esq., of Athens, on his good fortune. He has just been awarded a pension for injuries sustained in the late war, and the other day received a draft for $1710 on account of arrearages.

After seven years of continuous faithful service as deliveryman for STEVENS & LONG, THEODORE ARNOT has resigned the position. We do not know what his plans for the future are, but he has our best wishes for success in whatever he may undertake.

The following clipped from the the Wyalusing items in Saturday's Elmira Advertiser is perfectly correct, barring the name of pater familias. We have always supposed that THOMAS was the son of our distinguished and able fellow citizen, Hon. E. R. MYER:

Thomas E. Myer, a talented young lawyer of Towanda, has hung his shingle out in our village, and awaits clients. Thomas comes of good stock—being a son of Howard Myer, a man of acknowledged ability and integrity.

A brave woman like a brave man, deserves much credit. Bravery in its true meaning, is to meet heroically every emergency. We cite a case. Some time since, a large hawk dove down, fastening his claws on a young turkey, when Mrs. C. L. SQUIRES of Pike, caught up a rifle, and with a steady aim, fetched the monster on the wing to the ground—landing the turkey unhurt. This is an example for the Leraysville Rifle Team, and one too which they would find it difficult to equal.—Le Raysville Advertiser.

Germania Band will honor "mine host" Maj. SEELY with a serenade this evening.

Prof GLEASON will give an exhibition of his skill in training vicious horses, in front of the Ward House at 1 o'clock this afternoon.—JIM LOCKABEE'S kicking horse is to be the subject.

PARKER, the villain who assaulted Mrs. BULL, an account of which appears on our fourth page, was captured in Canada. It is hoped the severest punishment will be meted out to him.

We beseech the Towanda REVIEW to procure a proof reader.—Tunkhannock Standard.

And we suggest the propriety of the Standard's securing the services of a practical printer.

A number of the stockholders of the Muncy Creek railroad, in order to get a railroad into Sullivan county, are endeavoring to organize a company and procure a charter for a new railroad, to be called the Lyeoming, Sullivan and Bradford railroad company. In this project it is proposed to use the bed of the Muncy Creek road, that being the one terminus, and the other terminus ultimately to reach Bradford county. It will have the endorsement and support of several prominent railroad magnates.—Willsamsport Sun and Banner.

The M. E. Church and Sunday School will picnic at Ellenberger's Trout Ponds on Wednesday next, August 3. Train will start from Court House at 10 a. m. sharp and return at 6 p. m. Fare for the round trip 50 cents for those not members of the school. All members of the congregation and other friends are cordially invited to join. Tickets for sale at C. T. Kirby's, Dye & Co's and Geo. Ridgway's.

DIED.—In Montrose, Pa., Sunday morning, July 24th, Mrs. LYDIA C. SEARLE, widow of L. SEARLE, Esq., who died in December last. Mrs. SEARLE was about seventy years of age, a lady of rare literary attainments, being the author of several works of great merit. She was the daughter of Elder DIMMICK, one of the pioneer preachers in northern Pennsylvania. She was beloved by all who knew her, and especially the needy. No one ever left her door without a kind word, accompanied with something to make him or her happy. This class will miss her kind words and charitable gifts. She leaves a family of three daughters and one son. To the children of the deceased I would offer my warmest sympathies in this hour of their great sorrow.—Owego Gazette.

The Third Brigade, National Guards of Pennsylvania, to which the Ninth Regiment is attached, will encamp at WilkesBarre from Aug 23d to 29th. The inspection by the Adjutant General will take place during the Encampment. The Ninth Regiment will be inspected on Thursday, Aug. 25, at 3 p. m. The Brigade will be reviewed by the Governor on Saturday, Aug. 27th at 4 p. m. The inspection will be vigorous. The law now requires the attendance of all officers and men unless excused by the Brigade Commander for such reasons only as would prevail in actual service. Since the men are now paid for five days service, the attendance of the Guard will no doubt be very large. Co. A, of this place belongs to the Ninth Regiment.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Fair, except possibly local rains near the coast; winds mostly southerly, with stationary barometer and higher temperature.

The President's Condition.

JULY 31. 8:30 A. M.

The appearance of the wound at the evening dressing was in every way satisfactory. The afternoon rise in temperature has been quite insignificant. At present the pulse is 104, temperature 99, respiration 20.
