Street Commissioner NORTHRUP is making some marked improvements on State street.

A letter from Watertown, N. Y., to the Philadelphia Times, dated July 30, gives further particulars of the fiendish assault upon Mrs. BULL. The Times correspondent falls into the same blunder that other newspaper writers have in confounding the names of ex-Senator PLATT of New York with that of the Senator bearing the same name from the state of Connecticut. The following is the letter:

The particulars of the brutal outrage upon Mrs. George Bull, of Philadelphia, are now known. The assault was committed on Tuesday, by Charles Parker, a North Woods guide, at Buttermilk Carry, between Forked and Long Lakes. At the North River Hotel Mrs. Bull made the acquaintance of W. F. Hall and wife, of New York city, while she was en route for ex-Senator Platt's camp at Long Lake. They accompanied her to Blue Mountain Lake. Upon their arrival there they found that Mrs. Bull's trunk had been left behind. They all waited over one day for the missing trunk, and as it did not arrive Mr. and Mrs. Hall proceeded on their journey, leaving Mrs. Bull to follow the next day. Mrs. Bull, accompanied by Charles Parker as guide (who had been pointed out as a safe, reliable man), proceeded on her way to the camp of ex-Senator Platt. It was while crossing the last carry, between Forked Lake and Long Lake, that the heinous crime was committed. While crossing the lake after leaving the carry the villain extorted a promise of silence from the lady under threats of drowning.

Upon arriving at the camp she was met on the shore by her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hall and others. Mr. Hall states that the ladies of the party, already in camp, not having been so promptly apprised of the coming of Mrs. Bull, were behind Mr. Hall in reaching the shore of the lake where the guide was landing. On reaching the shore Mr. Hall at once saw there was trouble from the appearance of the lady, who upon stepping ashore and seeing her friends, had an attack of hysteria. As the guide attempted to push off his boat Mr. Hall seized it by the bow; at the same time he grasped an oar and ordered Parker to keep quiet. He then called on the guides of ex-Senator Platt to come to his assistance. None of them at the time really knew what was the trouble, but Mr. Hall instinctively felt that something had gone wrong. Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Hall were in the meantime endeavoring to restore Mrs. Bull to consciousness, while Mr. Hall and the Senator ordered the other guides, three in number, at the camp, to detain Parker until the matter could be investigated.

During the confusion, however, Parker jumped ashore and escaped into the woods. The alarm was promptly spread, but owing to the limited number of available men and the distance from the different avenues of escape, Parker reached his own camp, secured his rifle and had about two hours' start of his pursuers. Parker went to Lowville, Lewis county, where he took the train for this city and arrived here Wednesday night. The next morning he boarded the train for Cape Vincent and by noon was in Canada, outside of our officers' reach. Two of them left for there Thursday and after much trouble returned here last evening with the fiend. He is now in jail and officers and a son of Mr. Platt are expected in this city this evening. He admits he is the guide, but denies the crime. He will no doubt be severely dealt with. Mrs. Bull remains at Mr. Platt's camp.

The Third Brigade, National Guards of Pennsylvania, to which the Ninth Regiment is attached, will encamp at Wilkes-Barre from Aug 23d to 29th. The inspection by the Adjutant General will take place during the Encampment. The Ninth Regiment will be inspected on Thursday, Aug. 25, at 3 p. m. The Brigade will be reviewed by the Governor on Saturday, Aug. 27th at 4 p. m. The inspection will be vigorous. The law now requires the attendance of all officers and men unless excused by the Brigade Commander for such reasons only as would prevail in actual service. Since the men are now paid for five days service, the attendance of the Guard will no doubt be very large. Co. A, of this place belongs to the Ninth Regiment.
