People cross the ocean and pay thousands of dollars to see Niagara Falls. An opportunity is now afforded any of our readers to see the great wonder for less than five dollars.

Owing to repairs being made on the trestle at this place, passengers on the S. L. & S. R. E., for Bernice have for several days been obliged to take an overland trip through town, in order to take the train at either end of the bridge. The trestle is now complete, and the train is running as usual. The street at the crossing of the trestle is much wider than before.—Dushore Review.

Excursionists to Niagara Falls on Tuesday next need have no fears of extortionate charges when arriving there. The managers have arranged every detail, as will be noticed. Admission to all places has been secured at remarkably low rates. And arrangements have been made with the Spencer House, one of the best hotels, for meals at 50 cents, half the usual rate.

ORWELL, Aug. 4, '81.

Haying done. Everything drying up. Oat harvest well advanced. Genial, jolly, Prof. H. H. Pendleton, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with his parents. Mr. J. W. Knapp, of Waverly, with wife and child are visiting friends here. The candidate is abroad shaking hands with his friends.

The Extensive Rosery and Nursery House of R. G. Chase & Co., of Geneva, N. Y. is represented in Towanda and vicinity by Mr. J. T. MOORE, of Ithaca. This is one of the oldest and most reliable Nursery Concerns in the State of New York. Their large and increasing trade is due solely to their honorable method of doing business. Many of our best citizens will cheerfully testify to the very satisfactory manner of their dealings with them in the past, always receiving their orders in the best condition and True to name. Parties giving Mr MOORE their orders can do so with the utmost confidence. We bespeak for him a large patronage.

You may never have another opportunity to visit Niagara Falls for the trifling sum now asked for a ticket to take you there and back on Tuesday next. The train will remain at the falls 8 hours, which gives ample time to visit all places of interest and see all that is to be seen.

The Falls will be splendidly illuminated by Electric Light before the time for returning. Tickets to all places of interest may be procured of the Managers on the train at greatly reduced rates.

Baggage car attached to the train for the accommodation of lunch baskets, &c.

Parties visiting Prospect Park have full view of Falls during the day, and evening by the electric light, and includes use of pavilion, lunch room, hot and cold water, at an expense of only 35 cents. Tickets admitting to above and to Goat Island, Luna Island, Three Sisters, Biddle Stairs, Inclined Railway—good for one trip down and up—Art Gallery, also for one passage over Suspension Bridge and return, for the low price of $1 25. This includes all that can possibly be seen.

Tickets at this low price can only be had of the Managers on the train.

Special arrangements have been made with first class hotels for reduced rates.

VENOR predicts a pleasant day. Mr. BABCOCK, the ticket agent of the P. & N. Y. R. R. has the tickets for sale and informed us that he would carry some with him, so that they can be obtained of him without going specially to the railroad station.

E. C. SHAW of this borough, who has a collection of "ball tickets," has shown us some of them. One is an invitation to a ball in this place, which reads: "Washington Ball. At the Bradford Hotel, Friday evening February 22, 1850. Bill $1. Music by Quartette band." The Bradford hotel stood on the ground now occupied by the Reporter and Council buildings. It was destroyed by fire in the fall of 1853, the night before the opening of the first agricultural fair.

Another one is for an "Independence Ball," to be given in "Exchange Hall, East Smithfield, Wednesday July 1st., 1846, at 2 o'clock P. M. Managers—H. A. PHELPS, H. S. KELLOGG, G. S. PECK, S. E. WILCOX, W. H. PHELPS, LEROY HAYT."

"Balls" have gone out of date, and dances are now termed "hops," "Germans," etc.

Say you pay $4 95 for a ticket to Niagara Falls, good Aug. 9, and 50 cents for your dinner at the Spencer House, then add $1 25 for a ticket to all places of interest. The insignificant sum of $6 70 will cover the expense of the entire trip.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.
