Dr. RANDALL, the young gentleman who has been assisting Dr. KELLY for some time past contemplates engaging in business for himself in some other town, and Doctor KELLY has engaged another assistant, who is thus endorsed by the Ithaca Journal:

Dr. Fowler has accepted a very fine offer to spend three weeks in each month as operator at a dental chair in an excellent office in Towanda, Pa. The salary is said to be one which would tempt most men in his profession.—The Doctor will give one week in each month to his practice here, his office remaining in the Uri Clark building. Engagements will be made for him by Cal. Clark and Fred Nourse for patients wishing to make appointments for his dental services. The doctor will be missed as much as he will miss his pleasant associations here.

IMPROMPTU ORGAN CONCERT.—Mr. E. B. SPENCER, organist of Dr. HENRY'S (Presbyterian) Church in Philadelphia, gave a highly interesting organ recital in our Presbyterian Church, last evening. The sudden thunder storm prevented the attendance of most of those who had been hurriedly notified of this rare entertainment. About a score, only, of musicians and lovers of classical music, reached the Church in advance of the heavy rain, and they were extremely fortunate. A treat like this has rarely been enjoyed in Towanda. Accustomed to a grand Rosevelt organ, with bellows supplied by water power and many other modern facilities, Mr. SPENCER, nevertheless brought out from this rural instrument a wonderful variety of absorbing effects and charming combinations. During a recess the alarm of fire and the lurid glare thereof at the south, unfortunately ended the concert. Mr. SPENCER is also a masterly pianist and a composer of popular music. He has been in town for two days only, the guest of Mr. C. S. FITCH. When he comes again we hope he may find an organ worthy of his professional skill.

The rain fell in perfect torrents for nearly two hours last evening.

The Ladies Baptist Missionary Society will meet in the church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Why is not the fire-escape law observed? There are a number of buildings in town that ought to be supplied with them.

Messrs. DITTRICH have handed us a hen's egg which measures 7 3/4 inches one way and 6 5/8 the other and weighs four ounces. It was purchased in a crate of eggs sent from Ulster.

FIRE.—MILLER FOX'S farm barn on the flats, near Towanda creek bridge, was struck by lightning during the shower last evening, and entirely consumed, with all its contents, including a pair of horses. The building was filled with hay and grain. No insurance.—The loss falls very heavily on Mr. JAS. CUMMINGS, the tenant of the farm, who loses not only his team but the result of his whole year's labor.
