It is our opinion that in the church as in politics, there has been a gradual giving way from the old-time anchorings; that in consequence there is less of genuine piety in the church and less of patriotism in the hearts of the people. In the mad chase for what is called "popular religion"—something to tickle the fancy and catch the almighty dollar, the church, irrespective of denominational lines, has "gone over" to the enemy. So many evidences appear that we are sometimes led to believe that the Devil's proposition to the Saviour on the Mount has since been accepted by a large number of His professed followers, in order to better support the pomp and splendor demanded by those who are attracted to the "house of worship" by the highest salaried preacher, the costliest church edifice, and the gayest dressed attendants. As in politics, so it is in religion. There is a constant and growing tendency to forsake old landmarks; both church and State are more or less inclined to join in the butterfly chase for spoils: and in our yielding to suit the new order of things, we as a nation and people are growing undemocratic—there is less and less of Christian simplicity, less charity, and more style than a Paris Exposition. —Toioga County Leader.

Gov. St., John of Kansas writes: "Our Prohibitory law has been in force since the 1st day of May, and it is already proving to be a grand success. Take for illustration the city of Topeka, which has a population of 20,000; there is not a saloon in the city, where last month there were at least 25. This is the seventeenth day since the law took effect, and there is but one case of drunkenness in the police court, and that was of a poor fellow who got drunk on Hostetter's Bitters. The man who sold him the bitters was promptly arrested and fined $10. I respectfully call upon the advocates of licensed dramshops to point to a single town in the United States of even half the population of the city of Topeka that can present such a grand record for sobriety as Topoka presents since the law took effect. There is not an open saloon in Kansas outside of the cities of Leavenworth and Atchinson, and in those towns sixteen prosecutions are in progress."

There continues to be more demand than supply at the Castle Garden Labor Bureau in New York, and this in face of unprecedented emigration. This is significant of activity in private and corporate enterprises, and in commerce and manufactures, but it is still more significant of new homes and wealth-producing fields in the great West. This country is young yet.

Hartmann, the Nihilist, states that he has no fear of extradition. The question was never raised in England while he was there. The Nihilist wish a constitutional government and would oppose nothing desired by the people. If there is no change of policy the Czar will die; if his successor pursues a similar policy he will be killed, and so on. Hartmann declares that he does not intend to organize a Socialistic or Nihilistic party in this country.

A queer announcement comes from Madrid. The Spanish Finance Minister says he will henceforth publish the truth about the condition of the Treasury. He begins by stating that Cuba has an unliquidated debt of about ninety millions of dollars of which the Spanish public seems not to have been aware. Cuba is the richest possession of the Spanish crown, but her affairs have always been badly if not dishonestly managed.

The mortal remains of Lieut. Nathan Davis and his wife repose peacefully in the old burying ground at Harwinton, Conn. He died in 1875, and she a year later, and each was ninety-seven years old when the mortal coil was shuffled off. One headstone serves for both graves, and upon it are inserted two stanzas of elegiac verse, of which the following is a literal copy:

"Death is a det that's justly due that I have paid and so must you."

"This det I owe is justly due and I am come to sleep with you."

Mrs. Davis is still celebrated in Litchfield County as the woman who, in her nineties, shot a bear in her garden on a Sunday morning.

HOMEOPATHIC

LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
