The Athen Gazette says Mr. C. HUNSICKER, one of the most enterprising and liberal citizens of that ancient village, has the finest, best kept grounds surrounding his elegant and costly furnished mansion, in that section. And CORNELIUS knows how to enjoy it.

A Litchfield correspondent of the Athens Gazette, writes of our old friend: "Dr. JUDSON has repaired his residence, having built a large addition. He has one of the finest farms in town, and his premises now look very pleasant and inviting. The Doctor is a good fellow, any way." To all of which we say amen.

Mr. A. HAFER, one of the employes of FROST'S factory, was struck in the face Saturday morning by a piece of timber thrown violently from a buzz saw. Mr. HAFER met with an accident a few years ago by which he lost several fingers.

B. S. RUSSELL, Esq., our former esteemed townsman, has located at Jamestown, Dakota, and embarked in the real estate business. Mr. RUSSELL'S experience in the west cannot but prove valuable, and he can be of great service to those who contemplate settling in the great wheat growing section of our country. He has large quantities of farming lands and town lots for sale, and we have no doubt he will cheerfully and promptly answer all letters pertaining to the country.

The wife of Rev. R. L. STILWELL died in Dresden, N. Y., last week. She was a daughter of the late PLYNN PHELPS, of Burlington and was a most estimable Christian lady.

Some of the most desirable and valuable real estate in Towanda, will be offered for sale by the executors of the estate of the late J. D. MONTANYE, deceased. The store at the corner of Main and Park streets, is a good investment at $10,000 and will net a six per cent. income on that sum. The homestead property has been divided into four large lots with an alley running from Main to Second street. On two of these lots are good dwellings and the whole of them are so conveniently located that they ought to bring a good price. The sale will begin at 1 o'clock to day.

The President's Condition.

Drs. Agnew and Hamilton were both in Washington yesterday. While the official bulletins are encouraging, there is no doubt great fear of another relapse entertained. It is asserted by some of the newspaper correspondents that another secretion of pus is feared in the vicinity of the ball. At 1 this morning the President was sleeping quietly without the aid of morphia. Pulse 96.
