The Niagara Falls Excursion is looking very promising and the Managers are confident of success. The weather promises settled fair, and a very pleasant excursion and thoroughly enjoyable day is anticipated.

The ride through the charming country, through which the railroad passes, will only be the excelled for sight-seeing, by the grand scenery about the Falls.

Prospect Park is quite a recent added attraction. The Park contains about eleven acres of original forest, and it embraces the best views of both the American and Canada Falls to be obtained on this side of the river; and, besides, views from the river bank below the Falls that are not visible from any other place. The Excursion party will find in the Large Pavilion perfect protection from the elements, with large opportunities for dancing recitations, singing, etc. Hot and cold water, and outside refreshment rooms, will be found to add to the pleasure and convenience of visitors, without cost.

The Inclined Railway carries visitors to the edge of the river below the Falls, where a sublime view of the American Fall can be had from its base. A passage has been opened by which visitors may pass under, the shadow of the Rock behind the American Fall, as far as their inclination may prompt, and there behold a spectacle unequalled for grandeur by any other at present known to the most intrepid and adventurous explorer from the hurricane bridge (in front of American Fall) may be seen the spray-cloud.

During the afternoon when the skies are bright, and the direction of the wind is down the river, the spectator may behold a Marvellous Picture by "Nature's own cunning hand" in colors of red, orange and violet, reflected and reflected by the spray-beads of the ascending cloud.

Guide, dressing-room, waterproof and Bathing dresses for Ladies and Gentlemen will be found at the foot of the Railway.

From the foot of the inclined railway will be found the Ferry to Canada which has been in operation more than fifty years without the occurrence of any accident. The view from the barges while crossing the river is esteemed the grandest of all.

Goat Island divides the American and Canada Falls, and is approached by a bridge over the rapids above the Falls. From the head of the Island a fine view of the rapids and up the river may be had.

The Art Gallery embraces several hundred representations of the most notable scenes of European and Oriental history, churches, Palaces, lakes, rivers, mountains, naval and land encounters, etc., etc., all enlarged microscopically, and so arranged that one hundred persons may at the same time be pleasantly occupied in their examination.

The grounds, fountain and falls will be lighted every evening, inclement weather excepted, by the largest of Brush's dynamo-electric machines. Visitors will be afforded an opportunity of beholding the sublime and novel effects of the reflected light upon the water and the electric bow painted upon the spray-clouds of the American fall and its surroundings.

The above is embraced in excursion tickets which can only be purchased of the managers on the train at $1.25. Be sure and furnish yourself with these tickets before arriving at the Falls, otherwise you will have to pay full fare.

Mr. BABCOCK, the ticket agent of the P. & N. Y. R. R. has the tickets for sale and informs us that he would carry some with him, so that they can be obtained of him without going specially to the railroad station.

The Extensive Rosery and Nursery House of R. G. Chase & Co., of Geneva, N. Y., is represented in Towanda and vicinity by Mr. J. T. MOORE, of Ithaca. This is one of the oldest and most reliable Nursery Concerns in the State of New York. Their large and increasing trade is due solely to their honorable method of doing business. Many of our best citizens will cheerfully testify to the very satisfactory manner of their dealings with them in the past, always receiving their orders in the best condition and True to name. Parties giving Mr MOORE their orders can do so with the utmost confidence. We bespeak for him a large patronage.

Say you pay $4 95 for a ticket to Niagara Falls, good Aug. 9, and 50 cents for your dinner at the Spencer House, then add $1 25 for a ticket to all places of interest. The insignificant sum of $6 70 will cover the expense of the entire trip.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.
