Table with columns for ARRIVE and DEPART, listing various routes and times.

Captain WILT promulgated the following order to his company last evening: ARMOY Co. "A," 9th Regt. N. G. Pa.

GENERAL ORDER No. 9. I. General Order No. 4 from Division Headquarters fixes the time for the Encampment from August 23d to August 29th 1881, at WilkesBarre, Pa.

II. Transportation, camp and garrison equipage, and subsistence will be furnished.

III. The annual inspection by the Adjutant General, during said encampment, is announced to take place on Thursday August 25th, at 3 p. m.

IV. The Brigade will be reviewed by the Commander-in-Chief on Saturday August 27th at 4 p. m.

V. The Commander-in-Chief, in General Order No. 12, announces the following:

"The inspection will be rigorous. Especial attention will be given to care and condition of clothing and equipments, and number of articles of each on hand. All rolls must be completed as near as may be before leaving the rendezvous. These encampments are held under the provisions of, and by authority of the law. It is mandatory, and requires the attendance of all who hold commissions or are serving a term of enlistment.

Excuses for absence will be entertained for such reasons only as would prevail in actual service. Officers and men can only be absent from this service by permission of the Brigade Commander.

To be effective and instructive, the encampment demands the continuous attendance of each individual for the whole time provided for. There will be no payment for partial service. If a leave of absence or furlough be granted upon surgeon's certificate of disability, where the disability arises in camp, or by reason of serious illness or death in the soldier's family, occurring while he is on his tour of duty, the payment will be in full."

VI. The encampment will occupy but six days, and you will receive pay for five, requiring you to lose one day only. In accordance with orders from headquarters, none can be excused from the attendance at this encampment, except by the Brigade Commander.

VII. All fines and dues for non-attendance at drills, are hereby remitted up to June 8th 1881. From this date, (June 8th), all fines will be charged and reported to Headquarters, in accordance with the law now in force. The fines for non attendance at regular drills are as follows: Commissioned officers, 25 cts., Sergeants 20, Corporals 15, privates, 10 For absence from a company parade the following are the fines fixed: Commissioned officers fifty cents; sergeants, forty cents; corporals, thirty cents; privates, twenty cents.

VIII. The book, "The Sentinel and his Duties," will be issued to each member of the company, as company property. A careful study of the book will be required. Officers and men must understand guard mounting and their duties, while serving a tour of guard. Hereafter members of the company will be reprimanded or punished for ignorance of Guard mounting or the duties of a sentinel.

IX. The members of the company will report at the Armory on Saturday, 20 of August, 1881 at one o'clock P. M. sharp for an out door drill and company parade, with knapsack, haversack and canteen.

X. The following appointment of non-commissioned officers is announced:

- 1st Sergeant, John McIntire, Sergeants, Corporals, John Taylor, Joseph Vincent, Frederic C. Heath, M. A. Moody, Porter Stratton, C. F. Mead, Edw. A. Thompson.

J. ANDREW WILT, Captain.

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain, Yours, &c. A. C. WOODRUFF.
