Recreation.

It is gratifying to observe a growing tendency on the part of the American people to provide themselves with recreation, seasons of rest from toil, both physical and mental. The fashionable resort does not afford the kind of relief necessary. Men, and women too, are coming to recognize the fact that the world is in a great degree what we choose to make it. Our own condition of thought and soul has more to do with the enjoyment we are seeking than local habitation. If all things serve it is pleasant and profitable to travel for a holiday. If this is not possible, or is difficult, the man or woman who can say "My mind to me a kingdom is" may be as absolute a monarch at home as abroad. Summer leisure and winter work are enjoyable to the disposition which regards all men charitably. The foibles of mankind are not of consequence enough to provoke a wise man's displeasure, and he is especially foolish who permits human follies to excite his disgust. "Uncle Toby" found room enough in the world for himself and the flies; and so may all discover that real happiness lies in seeking it in ourselves. We shall so find by the instinct of self-preservation if we reflect that, while others appear obnoxious to ourselves, we may be so to them in the same, or to a greater degree. Nothing to do, and knowing how to do it, is the secret of rest, limited to no place or condition, and better as an occasional mood than as a habit.

The New York Herald still holds to the opinion expressed on July 9, that President Garfield is "suffering from an exaggerated and erroneous diagnosis" and a consequently erroneous and exaggerated line of treatment, and wants Dr. Agnew to tell some one why a strong man with a wound that has not penetrated any great cavity, not injured any great blood vessel, nor touched any vital organ—with a mere flesh wound in the wall of the body—is now, after 37 days, no further advanced toward recovery than Mr. Garfield is?

The New York Commercial Advertiser urges that unless the present postage stamp flirtation, in which a particular position of the stamp expresses a particular sentiment, and by which the postoffice employes are given extra work and trouble, cease, the reassertion of the stamped envelope plan and the suppression of all postal stamps under the grade of twenty-five cents should take place. This would be a pretty severe inconvenience for many to suffer for the silly work of the addled-pated who may make it necessary.

Referring to the case of Samuel Miller, the old man who was recently murdered, as it is alleged, in Lycoming county for the insurance which had been placed on his life in some of the speculative companies, the Pittsburg Telegraph says: "The strong arm of the law must be stretched forth and this crime against society suppressed. When the gentlemen of the legislature who defeated the bill against speculative life insurance read the latest story of the fate of an old man they will wish that their skirts were clearer of it."

A scuttle escape for the roofs of passenger cars has been perfected. It is arranged so as to open when a car is turned over at an angle of forty-five degrees, and it is intended to have two or three in each car according to the length of the cars. The device is doubtless a good one, but it isn't a pleasant reflection to constant travelers that it is a necessary one.

Prof. Bell says he intends to give his new invention of the induction balance to the world because he does not think there should be a patent upon a device that promises to be so beneficial to surgical science. This is certainly a commendable spirit.

The cattle shipping business at Council Bluffs, is now fairly under way. Stockmen say that fully 200,000 cattle will be shipped from the West to the Eastern markets this season. The sales at the yards there will also be very large.

DR. A. E. BURR'S

HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
 - 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
 - 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
 - 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
 - 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
 - 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
 - 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
 - 8th It will cure any Cold.
 - 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
 - 10th It will cure any Cough.
 - 11th It will cure Scurly Fever.
 - 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
 - 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
