Are you getting ready to go to Watkins Glen on Tuesday?

JAMES PETERSON'S (colored) babe died yesterday morning.

A company of North Towandians and a few friends from this place will visit the poor house to-day and pic nic in the woods near that institution.

The Catholics will hold a picnic at Barclay next Monday, Aug. 15, and invite the public to participate. Train leaves for Barclay at 8 o'clock a. m. Returning will leave Foot of Plane at 6:30 p. m. Fare for round trip, only 50 cents.

We learn the excursion to Watkins on the 16th promises to be very successful. If hard work, good management and a careful arrangement for the comforts of excursionists ever win success, we are certain our Wyalusing friends will have it, for we have never known an excursion planned in which these conditions were more completely met. Without doubt many from Towanda and all along the route will avail themselves of the unprecedented low rates.

THE DOCTORS.—Since our last report the following additional registrations of physicians have been made:

Watson Clark Hull, M. D., Monroeton; Geneva Medical College, January 22, 1861. Assistant surgeon U. S. Navy, from 1861 to 1864. Surgeon of volunteers January 1865 to close of war.

Cady Smith, M. D., Alba.; Eclectic Medical College, Pa., Dec. 24, 1879. Is a member of the Schuylcr county, N. Y., Medical Society.

Philo S. Carpenter, A. M., M. D., Austinvillc; Wooster University of Ohio, Medical Department, Feb. 25, 1875.

Draper Nichols Newton, M. D., Towanda borough; Pennsylvania Medical College, Philadelphia, March 7, 1848.

Fred Gordon Newton, M. D., Towanda borough; Jefferson Medical College, March 13, 1880.

Henry Arthur Bartlett, Sugar Run.
James Morris Barrett, M. D., Orwell; Medical Department, University of Michigan.

THE CAMPING GROUND.—The ground chosen for the encampment of the Third Brigade August 23-29, is probably as suitable for the purpose as any that could have been selected in this locality. It is two miles from the central business portion of the city, and almost three-quarters of a mile from the South Wilkes-Barre terminus of the South Main street railway. Lying upon a prominent elevation, good air and extensive views of the beautiful surroundings are assured, and while the site is less easy of access than Lee Park, it possesses other advantages, at least to the eyes of those who selected it, which are deemed paramount to accessibility. The water supply, their being none in the field, will be procured at neighboring farm houses, and conducted to the grounds in pipes. There is no reason why the soldiers may not enjoy themselves there, if they may do so any where while on duty, and they will not be interrupted in their deliberations by many inquisitive visitors as more labor than the average citizen cares to expend will be required to reach them. The place is good as any in which to spend a week under military surveillance, and if it does smack a little of barrenness and isolation, the return of the soldiers to the busy marts of trade will be the more enjoyable.—Wilkes-Barre Union Leader.

We are constantly receiving orders for "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained glass," and are ready to give our patrons the full benefit of an inexpensive and handsome decoration by placing it on any glass whether door or window, large size or small glass, green or white, round or square, in fact any position, shape or kind of frame or glass that needs shading from the rays of the sun, or from the gaze of inquisitive eyes. Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed since we have received the agency of this Imitation, we shall by a strict attention to business, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. To those who have heard of the "Imitation Glass," and have not seen it, we extend a cordial invitation to examine into its real merits, and ask the prices for which it can be obtained, we are prepared to contract with churches, halls, or other public buildings, and warrant all of our work to surpass in beauty the genuine stained glass and our prices are less than one-fourth the cost of the same. Those in need of anything of this kind or who are lovers of art, whether they wish to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to examine the same at CHAS. F. CROSS' Book Store.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD: My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.
