CHARLEY F. BROWN, only son of our townsman, S. M. BROWN, who has just completed a five years term of enlistment in the regular army, having been honorably discharged from the service, is paying a visit to his parents.

Get ready to go to Watkins Glen next Friday.

Germania Excursion to Watkins Glen, one week from to day. Are you going?

The venerable Judge CHUBBUCK died yesterday morning. His funeral will take place at the M. E. Church in Rome, at three o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. WILLIAM TAYLOR, at the Church of the Messiah Sunday morning will talk about "The Law and its nature and operation." No evening service.

JNHN KLINE favored us with a generous supply of fresh made, savory bologna sausage yesterday. It is very fine and we can cheerfully recommend it.

It is rumored that a branch of the Great Boston Clothing House, will be opened in Means' block in this town shortly. Particular notice will be given through the press all over the county.

The finest flavored and largest watermelons ever brought to this market can be found at RUNDELL'S market this morning. They are wholesome, delicious and cheap. Order one for your Sunday dinner.

INGERSOLL in one of his lectures speaks contemptuously of the Bible as the old "dug-out." Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL, at the Baptist Church to-morrow morning will speak on the Book and its claims as the revealed Word of God.

Yesterday Sheriff ROBERTSON and Chief of Police BUANS, of Towanda, Pa., arrested in Newark Valley, WILLIAM E. SMITH formerly a baker in this village, for being a deserter from the Ordnance Department, National Armory, Springfield, Mass. He was a printer, and deserted on the 5th of August. He was born in Owego, but enlisted in the service in Springfield, Mass. He was taken to Springfield last evening by two officers of the United States Army sent out to capture him.—Owego Times.

On Monday night, last, a fine black horse (valued at $200), and a double harness and fly net, were stolen from the barn of EDWIN BISHOP, in Wysox, Pa. The same night a wagon was stolen from Dr. MADILL of the same place. The thief brought the property to the town of Tioga, where it was found on the premises of MURRAY DOANE, near HYATT'S Ferry, by Chief. BURNS, of Towanda, and Sheriff ROBERTSON yesterday. Mr. DOANE says that a man brought the property to his place, and he accused him of stealing it, and that he immediately skipped out, leaving the property in his possession. The thief has not been found.—Owego Times.

Make your arrangements to go to Watkins Glen with the Germania Band on the 26th.

The President's Condition.

OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

AUGUST 19, 8:30 A. M.

The President slept much of the night. He is more comfortable this morning. The swelling of the right parotid gland has not increased and is more free from pain. Liquid food has already this morning been swallowed with relish. Pulse 100, temperature 98, respiration 17.

12:30, P. M.

The President's condition has perceptibly improved during the last twenty-four hours. The parotid gland is diminishing and has not pained him since last evening. He is taking an increased amount of nourishment without gastric disturbance. Pulse 109, temperature 98-8, respiration 17.

The President has been easy during the afternoon, and the favorable conditions reported in the last bulletin continues. The swollen parotid gland has not been painful. The temperature is the same, and the pulse rather less frequent than at this hour yesterday. Pulse, 106; temperature 100; respiration, 18.

Blaine's dispatch to Lowell last night was: In the judgment of the physicians, the President has gained since the last report. He has taken twenty-two ounces of liquid food with a relish and without any apparent tendency to nausea or indigestion. The other symptoms are not essentially changed, the pulse and temperature possibly a little better. The swelling of the parotid gland has not increased and fear of its suppuration has somewhat diminished. At 11 p. m., the President is sleeping quietly.

Hartmann the nihilist has left Chicago.

Present advices promise a military representation at the Yorktown celebration from nearly every State in the Union.

We are constantly receiving orders for "Lum Smith's Imitation Stained glass," and are ready to give our patrons the full benefit of an inexpensive and handsome decoration by placing it on any glass whether door or window, large size or small glass, green or white, round or square, in fact any position, shape or kind of frame or glass that needs shading from the rays of the sun, or from the gaze of inquisitive eyes. Thankful for the very liberal patronage bestowed since we have received the agency of this Imitation, we shall by a strict attention to business, hoping to merit a continuance of the same. To those who have heard of the "Imitation Glass," and have not seen it, we extend a cordial invitation to examine into its real merits, and ask the prices for which it can be obtained, we are prepared to contract with churches, halls, or other public buildings, and warrant all of our work to surpass in beauty the genuine stained glass and our prices are less than one-fourth the cost of the same. Those in need of anything of this kind or who are lovers of art, whether they wish to purchase or not, are respectfully invited to examine the same at

CHAS. F. CROSS' Book Store.
