State Treasurer.

A correspondent writing from Harrisburg on the State Treasurer question says: Since the announcement that Senator Lawrence would not be a candidate for State Treasurer, Senator Davies of Bradford county has been widely mentioned for the position. He did not become a candidate through any action of his own but through the repeated expressions of friends in the Legislature. He is very popular among his associates, and is respected by men of all wings and factions. His county is located in a section which was very warmly in favor of Mr. Grow for U. S. Senator, and after Mr. Grow's withdrawal Senator Davies continued to act with the Independents in obedience to the general sentiments of his constituents. But he was at the same time so moderate, reasonable and considerate that he retained the good will and friendship of the members on the other side, and those who are favorable to his nomination are found among the Regulars as well as the Independents.

It has been widely supposed that Senator Davies would not encounter any serious opposition. But within the past few days there are evidences of a movement to bring forward another candidate. The "Regular" managers are grooming General Bailey of Fayette for the race. They say they have no personal objection to Senator Davies, but put it upon the ground that some of the Regulars will not support him. They urge in favor of General Bailey that he is a new man, that he has not been involved in any party contests, and that he has a good record as a soldier. He commanded one of the Pennsylvania regiments and at the close of the war was made a brigadier general. The only civil position he has held was that of delegate to the Chicago convention where he was one of the 306 that voted for Grant. He is now a merchant and stands high as to character and integrity. Whether this movement will lead to a contest in the convention remains to be seen, some of the Regulars are committed to Senator Davies, and will support him whatever course may be taken by their leaders. If he goes into the convention as a candidate, he will have a large body of friends, and those who are now planning a different campaign may find it impossible to beat him. There is a general desire to avoid a conflict in the convention, and a general purpose, whoever is nominated, to carry the State. All the managers feel the importance of winning this battle preparatory to the great struggle of next year, and there is nowhere any disposition which was feared a while ago to allow the election to go by default. The Republicans are united in the determination to elect the treasurer this year and the governor next.

Dr. Hammond's comments on the President's case have excited indignation in official as well as private circles. It is stated that as Surgeon General on the retired list he is liable to be court-martialed for speaking disrespectfully of Surgeon General Barnes who is one of the President's attending surgeons.

In the September Scribner Mr. Albert Stickney concludes his important and timely series of three papers on the reform of elections and office-holding, in which he set forth a tersely radical system of reconstructing the election machinery. The numerous letters which have been elicited by Mr. Stickney's somewhat revolutionary plan show the profound interest which is felt in the subject.

Secretary Kirkwood talked very plainly and intelligibly to the Indian delegation in Washington on Wednesday and asked that the Sioux should surrender some of their land to the Poncas. The Sioux, after consultation, not only surrendered 25,000 acres, but with an exhibition of generosity and sympathy for their red brethren which puts the mercenary conduct of white men to the blush, refused to take pay for it. There is evidently a better side to some Indian natures if it can only be reached.

HOMEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th. It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th. It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th. It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th. It will cure Sore Throat.

- 9th. It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th. It will cure any Cough.
- 11th. It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
