If you wish to have a splendid trip, go to Watkins on Friday. The Band will accompany the Excursion and discourse fine music.

We are reminded that there was a session of the Pennsylvania legislature last winter, by the receipt of several copies of the Legislative Record yesterday.

A farmers' and grangers' basket picnic will be held at Hiawatha Island, near Owego, on Saturday next. Col. PROLETT and W. A. ARMSTRONG will make addresses.

There will be five changes of the moon next month, September, which is the only month in the calendar that will furnish such a lunar spectacle this year. The moon will reach its first quarter on the 1st, full on the 7th, last quarter on the 12th. On the 23d new moon and the first quarter on the 30th.

Our devil, who is a regular church goer, came in late this morning wearing a grieved countenance, went at once to a case and began setting up without copy. When he came to a rest we took his stick which read as follows and for which he alone is responsible:

When a man will occupy a pulpit and speak to a strange congregation for one hour and ten minutes, pumping up each word separately and emphasizing it with a pump handle gesture and drawing out commonplace ideas as with a cork screw or dental forceps and tiring every body half to death, making the choir almost sing out of tune because they were out of patience—"that man's religion is vain," and so is he, very.

Co. A. 9th Regiment.

Co. A. 9th Regiment, Capt. WILT, left for WilkesBarre yesterday afternoon, where they go into camp for a week, under the following General Order:

Capt. WILT has issued the following General Order to his company:

ARMORY Co. "A," 9th Regt. N. G. Pa.,
TOWANDA, Pa., August 4th, 1881.

GENERAL ORDER No. 9.

I. General Order No. 4 from Division Headquarters fixes the time for the Encampment from August 23d to August 29th 1881, at WilkesBarre, Pa.

II. Transportation, camp and garrison equipage, and subsistence will be furnished.

III. The annual inspection by the Adjutant General, during said encampment, is announced to take place on Thursday August 25th, at 3 p. m.

IV. The Brigade will be reviewed by the Commander-in-Chief on Saturday August 27th at 4 p. m.

V. The Commander-in-Chief, in General Order No. 12, announces the following:

"The inspection will be rigorous. Special attention will be given to care and condition of clothing and equipments, and number of articles of each on hand. All rolls must be completed as near as may be before leaving the rendezvous. These encampments are held under the provisions of, and by authority of the law. It is mandatory, and requires the attendance of all who hold commissions or are serving a term of enlistment.

Excuses for absence will be entertained for such reasons only as would prevail in actual service. Officers and men can only be absent from this service by permission of the Brigade Commander.

To be effective and instructive, the encampment demands the continuous attendance of each individual for the whole time provided for. There will be no payment for partial service. If a leave of absence or furlough be granted upon surgeon's certificate of disability, where the disability arises in camp, or by reason of serious illness or death in the soldier's family, occurring while he is on his tour of duty, the payment will be in full."

VI. The encampment will occupy but six days, and you will receive pay for five, requiring you to lose one day only. In accordance with orders from headquarters, none can be excused from the attendance at this encampment, except by the Brigade Commander.

VII. All fines and dues for non-attendance at drills, are hereby remitted up to June 8th 1881. From this date, (June 8th), all fines will be charged and reported to Headquarters, in accordance with the law now in force. The fines for non attendance at regular drills are as follows: Commissioned officers, 25 cts., Sergeants 20, Corporals 15, privates, 10 For absence from a company parade the following are the fines fixed: Commissioned officers fifty cents; sergeants, forty cents; corporals, thirty cents; privates, twenty cents.

VIII. The book, "The Sentinel and his Duties," will be issued to each member of the company, as company property. A careful study of the book will be required. Officers and men must understand guard mounting and their duties, while serving a tour of guard. Hereafter members of the company will be reprimanded or punished for ignorance of Guard mounting or the duties of a sentinel.

IX. The members of the company will report at the Armory on Saturday, 20 of August, 1881 at one o'clock P. M. sharp for an out door drill and company parade, with knapsack, haversack and canteen.

X. The following appointment of non-commissioned officers is announced:

1st Sergeant, John McIntire.

Sergeants.	Corporals.
John Taylor.	Joseph Vincent.
Frederic C. Heath.	M. A. Moody.
Porter Stratton.	C. F. Mead.
Edw. A. Thompson.
