Commencing with next Sunday, evening service at Christ Church will begin at half past four o'clock.

In compliance with requests from interested readers, we print on our second page today the law regulating primary elections, although it has no application to this county.

POSTPONEMENT.—The evening services at the Church of the Messiah, which were announced for next Sunday, will be postponed on account of the extreme heat, until further notice. Rev. MYRA KINGSBURY will preach next Sunday morning.

Mr. SAMUEL STRATTON, of North Towanda sends us specimens of minerals dug up on his farm near the Pail Factory. The samples have the appearance of quartz, diamonds and coal. Mr. S. informs us that there are large quantities to be found there.

We have received from C. F. CROSS, the book seller and stationer a very handsome "birthday card." This reminds us that Mr. CROSS has the finest assortment of beautiful holiday, birth-day, Sunday School and reward cards we have ever seen in this market. The practice of sending birth-day cards is coming to be quite popular in this country, and it is a custom worthy of encouragement.

FOUND—After a good deal of fruitless search and a great deal of surmise the notes and checks stolen by the burglars from the Enterprise Co., amounting to between $5,000 and $6,000, were found on Tuesday secreted under the railroad bridge near Dillon's mills.—One of the employes of the shops being under the bridge caught sight of a string hanging down from a brace above and an investigation found the bundle of notes, the pocket book, etc., all safe and protected from the weather.—Troy Gazette.

MONROE ARRIVALS.—Daniel D. Olmstead, Esq., and wife, from Central Illinois, are visiting Rev. S. W. Alden and his. These old friends had not met face to face for more than thirty years, during which time Mr. and Mrs. Olmstead have made their terms with the great west, conquered and paid for a two hundred acre farm, with fine buildings, stock and conveniences, comforts and plenty, and now avail themselves of something better than either pen or pencil for a visit. The greeting was of the old and most rapturous type and the visit is hugely enjoyed. N. D. P.

We have heard so much of the beauties of Mountain Lake, that we had a great desire to view it; and by invitation from my worthy friend, Mr. William Henry, proprietor of the Henry House, and his most estimable wife, we embarked on Wednesday, August 24th, at eight a. m., for the lake. Our ride there was, well, as they term it, "simply immense!" so romantic and picturesque was the scenery. One need not go to Switzerland, neither to Italy for the beauties and grandeur of nature when we have it right here at home and in our own county. We arrived at the lake at ten o'clock, and such hungry beings, I really believe never before existed, as we had fasted fourteen hours for the event, but our hostess, Mrs. Henry, soon had the table spread, and laden with all the edibles of the season even to ice cream &c. So sumptuous was the repast, that your humble servant groaned for twenty-four hours afterward. Then came the boating on the lake, which was enjoyed by all to their satisfaction, and a ramble through the woods. At five o'clock we started for home arriving at eight, feeling well paid for our day's recreation and long for a repetition. V. E. B.

Clauson Lodge I. O. O. F., will hold a picnic in the grove at mouth of Sugar Run creek Friday September 9, 1881, to which all are invited. Dinner free to all. Ice cream served to order. Music and platform dance.

It is earnestly requested that the different Posts, and the soldiers and sailors, will lend their aid in making this encampment a grand success. General orders will be issued in a few days, giving full details.
