THE VERY LATEST—Styles in men's, children's and boys' suits, overcoats and furnishing goods can be found at Jacob's Clothing House as he has just opened an immense stock of Fall and Winter goods.

Here is a new plan for raising funds at church societies: The ladies write their name and weight on slips of paper and the gentlemen drawing the slips each taking the lady whose name he has drawn to supper, and paying half a cent a pound according to the weight of his partner. If the ladies should happen to overestimate their weight, it isn't considered a sin, as it is for the benefit of the church.

Persons taking the New York Excursion train September 6, can secure round trip tickets from New York to Albany by Hudson River day boat line, good for ten days, for $2 25 in addition to the New York ticket. To Albany and Saratoga and return, $4, making the cost of the trip from Towanda to New York, Saratoga and Albany and return, $9 20.

JOHN DECKER is now canvassing this place for an article which ought to find a ready sale in every household, as it will commend itself on examination. It is an Ironing Board so constructed that while it is durable it is readily folded up and put out of the way when not in use. We ask for Mr. DECKER a cordial reception; we believe the introduction of the article he is offering will prove a great benefit to all who have ironing to do.

There is so much truth in the following from the Whitney's Point N. Y., Reporter, and the editor's experience corresponds so exactly with that of other editors, that we presume the article will have a wide circulation. We make no apology for appropriating it:

We have always been willing to publish notices of marriages and deaths. Also festivals and other things of which the object in many instances was to make money, and by so doing we have given away hundreds of dollars worth in advertising for which many papers receive pay, and in almost every instance some merchant would have been glad to have paid the cash for the same kind of a notice of their business. Yet people have become so habituated to this, and it is so free that they do not appreciate it as a kindness, but will walk into our office and order us to put this or that into the paper this week and in some instances will tell us we can write it up that they have not the time. Now we wish to say to all such that the Reporter is a private enterprise, and if it fails to meet expenses it is our money and not yours that will be lost. How would it look for a couple to go to one of our clergy and say, "here, you marry us," and walk away without paying anything; or here is a funeral, you go and tend it! Or to the lawyer, here you draw up this mortgage or deed, I have not the time, and then if he gets one word wrong, blame him, but never offer to pay.

The idea that what you handed in is news! so is a good fresh advertisement to our readers. We love to do a kindness, and love to be generous when we have anything to be generous with, but when we help some one we want them to know it. We are perfectly willing to have our neighbors come in and ask us to make mention of this or that, which in most instances is equivalent to a free advertisement, which is worth money to somebody. When we attend a festival we are perfectly willing to shell out our money, if we have any, and when our neighbors come in and ask us to subscribe to this church or society we love to give something which we think we can say we always have, but if we were as selfish as some people act with us, churches and societies could never raise a dollar, for no one would have a dollar to pay.

One church society and one lady have asked us to take a dish of ice cream free. It was such an unusual request that we declined. We will say to both, however, that we do appreciate your generosity, and shall think more of you, and when you want a good local notice in the Reporter come right in and we will write you up a slasher.

We have not intended the above suggestion as a personal matter, but call attention to it on general principles.
