We learn from the Durango, Colorado, Record of a recent date, that our townsman, Capt. MCKEE who is spending the summer in the far west has accepted a situation there. That paper says:

"ROBERT MCKEE of Towanda, Bradford county, Pa., has charge of the mason work on H. B. CARTER'S new store, which, as heretofore stated, is to be one of the largest in town, being 50x100 feet in dimensions, and two stories high."

The wedding of Miss LEWIS and Mr. OLMSTEAD in Wysox, on Tuesday morning last, was a quiet but most pleasant affair. The ceremony was witnessed only by the relatives and immediate friends of the parties. The bride was the recipient of many costly and beautiful presents. In her traveling dress of myrtle green she looked charmingly beautiful. After an elegant breakfast the bridal party took their departure on a northward bound train.

Mr. OLMSTEAD will take his new bride to his home in Union, N. Y. We extend our hearty congratulations, and return thanks for a generous supply of wedding cake.

New York State Fair at Elmira next week.

The finest assortment of fruits in town at FITCH'S.

Three hundred meals were eaten at the Elwell House on Tuesday.

We are compelled to go to press without the Court Proceedings this morning because the person on whom we had depended to furnish them disappointed us.

Troy Farmers' Club Fair will be held on their grounds on the 21st, 22d and 23d of this month.

Don't forget the excursion to Mauch Chunk early next month. Those who went last year will all want to go again.

The crossing in front of the 99 cent store is in a dangerous condition. A lady with a babe in her arms fell there the other day.

Revs. J. B. FRENCH, of Troy, and DAVID CRAFT, of Wyalusing, will deliver addresses at the Odd Fellows pic nic, Sugar Run, tomorrow.

The President's Condition.

The President Recovers from the Fatigue of the Journey.

Yesterday was the warmest day of the season at Long Branch, but the President passed a comfortable day, and apparently was entirely recovered from the fatigue of his long journey. The physicians were highly gratified at his hopeful symptoms. He passed a comfortable night his fever having subsided last evening.

OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

LONG BRANCH, SEPT. 7, 1881.

9 A. M.

The President slept most of the night awaking however to take nourishment. This morning his symptoms are normal and he appears to have recovered from fatigue of his journey. Pulse 106; temperature 98.4; respiration 18. Next bulletin 6 P. M.

6 P. M.

Notwithstanding the exceptional heat of the weather, the thermometer in the President's room rising to 94 at 3:30 this p. m., there was a breeze most of the day, so that the President was comparatively comfortable. He has taken nourishment regularly and slept at intervals during the day. At 12:15 p. m., the pulse was 114, temperature 98.4, respiration 18.—Since then there has been some rise in temperature, though less than yesterday, and the pulse has somewhat diminished in frequency. At the evening dressing the appearance of the wound was favorable. At present his pulse is 108, temperature 101, respiration 18.

The President will now proceed to get well.

The condition of the crops in England is very bad.

The people of New York will have a season of special prayer in behalf of the President to-day.

The news of the safety of General Carr and most of his men brings satisfaction to the entire country.
